RE: LARRY ADLER
STELLA ADLER
SM - C

There is set forth below, information furnished by JOHN LAUTNER (NYCS-583).

LARRY and STELLA ADLER are descendants of the ADLER family, well known in the Jewish theatrical world. A cousin of STELLA ADLER was married to PHIL DAVID, whose real name could be PAUL ROSENBERG.

PHIL DAVID, in the late 1930's and early 1940's was the CP County Organizer in the Bronx. Soon after the end of the second world war PHIL DAVID was in Paris, where in partnership with EUNIN, produced a full length technicolor puppet show subsidized by the French Government. PHIL DAVID returned to the U.S. around 1942 at the time LAZAR died. LAZAR was a co-worker of PHIL DAVID for years in the CP. PHIL DAVID came from the airport straight to the funeral and soon after the funeral, left for Hollywood.

Recently, PHIL DAVID'S wife was an understudy to RUTH ELDRIDGE, the wife of FREDERICK MARCH in a play.

PHIL DAVID joined the CP in the very early 1930's and in 1936 he became Section Organizer of Section 18, West Side, Manhattan. Both PHIL and his wife were Party members at that time.

Re: VITO MARCANTONIO

Confidential Source NYC 588 on April 5, 1951, furnished the following information regarding the abovecaptioned individual:

In about 1934 LOUIS SASS, Organizational Secretary of the Harlem Party, stated to the informant that he was going to VITO MARCANTONIO to collect dues from him for the Party. LOUIS SASS was also campaign manager for MARCANTONIO in the election campaign when MARCANTONIO was defeated by Congressman LONZETA (ph.) in 1948. During the congressional election campaign one Saturday BURNEY CHESTER was running around trying to make contact with BILL NORMAN who told him to get $15,000 immediately because MARCANTONIO needed money.

It was well known in the Party leading circles that GEORGE BLAKE was then contact liaison between MARCANTONIO and the Party. On one occasion GEORGE BLAKE stated that MARCANTONIO was making it more and more difficult for the Party because of his "unholy" alliances with questionable characters in the Harlem area. The election of MARCANTONIO to office was considered the Number 1 task of the New York City organization of the Communist Party in all election campaigns.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

JOHN LAUTNER - GOVERNMENT WITNESS

(Bufile 100-372573)

JOHN LAUTNER, potential Government witness in the prosecution of the CP under the Internal Security Act of 1950, has advised that he has an understanding with Mr. LARRY BAILEY, attorney of the Department of Justice, that LAUTNER would review material, newspapers, etc., that would tend to show the tie up of the CP, USA with other Communist Parties. LAUTNER stated that he would review current material, the classics, all of LENIN'S selected and collected works for such material. LAUTNER also made available to this office a copy of his notes which he has furnished by letter to BAILEY.

LAUTNER advised that in reviewing the newspaper, "For A Lasting Peace for People's Democracy," dated 1/26/51, the organ of the Information Bureau of the Communist and Workers Party, the article entitled "Outstanding Work of Creative Marxism," 25th anniversary of J. V. SALINOS work "Problems of Leninism," is set forth:

V - VOBA-FLKSA

"Comrade STALIN routed the contemptible enemies of the Party and people - the Linovians, Trotskyites and others who claimed that Leninism was not an international proletarian teaching but a purely Russian product and who played into the hands of [redacted], who also denied the suitability of Leninism for other countries. Life has fully confirmed Comrade STALIN'S thesis on the international significance of Leninism. . . . Who, indeed would say today that Leninism is not suitable also for France, Italy, Britain, the USA and all other countries!

"V.I. LENIN pointed out that the transitions from capitalism to Socialism will be accompanied by a diversity of political forms, arising from the specific historical "conditions of the different countries and peoples. However, the essence, wrote LENIN, 'will inevitably be the same: the dictatorship of the proletariat.'

The following article appeared in "For Lasting Peace" February 2, 1951:

"Mighty Force for Proletarian Internationalism"
by L. RAUTIN

"Nowadays, the banner of proletarian internationalism unites hundreds of millions of people all over the world,

"The Communist Party - bearers of the ideology of proletarian internationalism - have become stronger organizationally, and their prestige and influence among the broad masses have grown immeasurable. The international Communist movement has become even more organized, still more consolidated around the Soviet Union which is building Communism, around the leader of world Communism, STALIN.

"The strength of the international Communist movement has precisely in the fact that all Communist Parties, on the basis of experience of the C.P.S.U. (B) and on the basis of their own experience, are guided in their entire policy by the Stalinist thesis that Leninism is the generalization of the experience of the revolutionary movement of all countries, that the basic principles of the theory and tactics of Leninism are obligatory for proletarian parties in all countries, that Bolshevism is a model of tactics for all."

February 9, No. 6 Issue - Three column review with picture of GENE DENNIS' book:

"Ideas They Cannot Jail"

front page:

"Movement in U.S. Against War Preparations"

"The movement against the Government's intentions to introduce conscription and compulsory military training for young of 18 and upwards is spreading in the United States. At the Young Peoples General Assembly for Peace in Chicago recently more than 200 delegates representing the youth of 15 states unanimously expressed themselves in favor of peace

Letter to Director, FBI
NY 100-102320

"talks between the Great Powers, against calling up of young men of 13 into the army and against universal military training.

"Two hundred representatives of the Women's Peace Committees of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania are leaving for Washington to lodge a protest against conscripting 13 year olds, the arming of Germany and to demand the cessation of the war in Korea. . . . "

Speaking of the characteristic features of the dictatorship of the proletariat, Comrade STALIN defined its three main aspects:

"1. The utilization of the power of the proletariat for the suppression of the exploiters, for the defence of the country, for the consolidation of the ties with the proletarians of other lands, and for the development and the victory of the revolution in all countries.

"2. The utilization of the power of the proletariat in order to detach the toiling and exploited masses once and for all from the bourgeoisie, to consolidate the alliance of the proletariat with the masses, to enlist these masses for the work of Socialist construction and to assure the State leadership of these masses by the proletariat.

"3. The utilization of the power of the proletariat for the organization of Socialism, for the abolition of classes, for the transition to a society without classes, to a society without a state.

"The proletarian dictatorship is a combination of all these aspects. Not one of these three aspects can be advanced as the sole characteristic feature of the dictatorship of the proletariat. On the other hand, it is sufficient, under the conditions of capitalist encirclement, that even one of these three features be lacking for the dictatorship of the proletariat to cease being a dictatorship. Therefore, not one of these three aspects can be omitted without running the risk of distorting the concept of the dictatorship of the proletariat. Only all these three aspects taken together give us a complete and finished concept of the dictatorship of the proletariat.

"Leninism - invincible banner of International Communist movement.

(3 column editorial on front page)

"When death wrested the helm from LENIN'S hands, STALIN took LENIN'S place. The great STALIN - the closest and most loyal friend and companion of LENIN - upheld the great banner of LENIN, rallied the Bolshevik Party and the International Communist movement around his behests. STALIN further elaborated the vital questions of Leninism, enriched it by new teachings, raised Marxism to a new and higher level.

"Leninism is Marxism of the era of imperialism and of the proletarian revolution. To be more exact, Leninism is the theory and tactics of the proletarian revolution in general, the theory and tactics of the dictatorship of the proletariat in particular." (Stalin)

"The contemporary situation confronts the Communist Parties with a number of vital and complicated tasks. The central task is the organization of the world-wide struggle for peace. . . 1

"With renewed strength the working people in all countries look to the standard bearer of peace - Comrade STALIN."

Letter to Director, FBI
NY 100-102320

"LENIN laid the ideological, theoretical, organizational and political foundations of the Communist Parties. The ideology of Leninism has triumphed completely in the Communist Parties. Bolshevism has become the basis of their strategy and tactics. In the complex labyrinth of the class struggle, the Communist Parties were, and are, guided by the advanced teaching of LENIN-STALIN. All Communist Parties regard the great and glorious Party of LENIN-STALIN, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, as a model for themselves."

A book "How Do We Raise the Question of a Labor Party?" by EARL BROWDER reflects as follows:

"Our revolution points out that the political changes that have taken place in 1934 among the masses demand that we review our whole attitude towards the question of a Labor Party."

"The question was greatly discussed in the Commissions of the Sixth World Congress, and finally, the decision which was written into the thesis of the Congress was that proposed by STALIN."

(JACK STACHEL)

"The Labor Party, even a genuine Labor Party, is not and can not be a substitute for the Communist Party. The Communist Party is the only revolutionary party of the workers which can organize and lead the masses to emancipation from capitalist exploitation."

"While the Labor Party has a program of immediate demand that are in the interests of the Workers, while it serves under present condition in the U.S.A. to accelerate the breaking away of the masses from the capitalist parties and to unite them for independent political mass action, The Communist Party does not stop here, but tries to educate and organize the masses not only how best to fight for the immediate demands, but also for the abolition of capitalism, which is possible only on the basis of the revolutionary program of the Communist Party."

Letter to Director, FBI

D. Z. MANVILSKY'S report to the 17th Congress of the Communist Party - Soviet Union, held January 26 to February 10, 1934 in Moscow, entitled "The Revolutionary Crisis is Maturing."

"For years the Comintern has been battling with the Italian Communist Party in order to break down the resistance of the Italian comrades to work in fascist trade unions, etc.... They have not mastered the secret of using that language of Aesop which, without diminishing its revolutionary class content, may stir and capture the imagination of the workers."

JOHN LAUTNER -- GOVERNMENT WITNESS

Re Cleveland letter dated April 2, 1951, requesting some additional descriptive information regarding the appearance of the house where LAUTNER was threatened by CP members while in Cleveland, Ohio, on January 14, 1950.

LAUTNER has furnished the following additional descriptive information concerning the house and the immediate neighborhood:

He stated that there was a saloon located on the corner of the same side of the street where the wooden frame house was located. An odd feature about this saloon was that the entrance or doorway to the saloon was cut at such an angle that the entrance met with the corner of the street. A neon sign was above the doorway. A short distance down the street were two or three frame houses on level land. Informant cannot recall which of these frame houses he entered, but he described the approach to the house as having a gate from the sidewalk which entered to a cement walkway. He recalled that he had to step up at least two or three steps to an open porch. The porch was the full length of the house.

After walking across the porch he entered the door of the house, but cannot recall whether the door was on the right or left side or in the middle. After entering the house he passed through a room which appeared to be a living-room and at the end of the living-room was a stairway which led to a basement. He recalled that he walked about eight to ten steps down into the basement. As he descended the steps to the basement he remembered that going down to the right of the stairway near the wall there was a sink with water running. LAUTNER recalls that the eight or ten steps leading to the basement were wooden steps.

In the basement he recalls that there was a sink, a curtain drawn across the middle of the basement as a separation, a furnace which was located behind the curtain and a pile of chopped wood located near the steps. Informant recalled that from the quick look that he had of the house prior to entering into it, the house appeared to be a wooden frame house with rooms on the second floor which appeared to be bedrooms. The house itself was set back about 30 feet from the sidewalk or entrance gate. Informant was inclined to believe that the doorway off the porch of the house was located near the middle of the porch.

The above information is being furnished for the assistance of the Cleveland Office.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, New York
FROM : SAC, Washington Field

DATE: April 30, 1951

SUBJECT: JOHN LAUTNER
CONFIDENTIAL NATIONAL DEFENSE INFORMANT

Recently while engaged in another matter at the Department of Justice, an agent of this office was through chance introduced to the above individual, who it is understood is presently assisting the Department of Justice in connection with hearings now being held under the provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950. During a brief casual conversation with him, it appeared he has considerable information concerning individuals who are now and have been active in the past in this area. It is therefore requested that the New York Office advise if arrangements can be made to have LAUTNER interviewed by Agents of WFO concerning his knowledge of CP activities in this area on the occasion of one of his subsequent visits to Washington, D.C.

The above captioned informant was interviewed on 4/24/51;
5/1, 4/51, in this office.

On 4/24/51 the informant furnished information on persons he knew to be C.P. members. These names appeared on list of concealed Communists originally reported by [redacted] The informant was also asked specific questions by Agents on various phases of C.P. activity.

b7D

On 5/1/51 the informant's service was utilized in connection with the coverage of the C.P. May Day Parade handled by Agent Frank Smith.
The informant identified many C.P. leaders at the parade and photo taken of each one so recognized by informant.

On 5/4/51 informant was interviewed by writer and recognized photos shown to him of C.P. members such as former FBI employee [redacted] [redacted] who in 1936 visited informant at C.P. section office in N.Y.C.
Informant also recognized [redacted] as one of the C.P. members who threatened his life in Cleveland on 1/15/50.

JOHN LAUTNER, Government Witness

Enclosed herewith are two copies totaling 86 pages each of the expected testimony for Government Witness JOHN LAUTNER (NYC CS 588), who will appear on the witness stand probably sometime in the beginning of June, 1951. LAUTNER advised that this testimony was prepared through the questioning of Assistant United States Attorney General LAWRENCE BAILEY. According to LAUTNER, BAILEY will examine him when he takes the witness stand.

These copies are being forwarded for the information of the Bureau. This office is of the opinion that perhaps the Research Desk at the Bureau may be interested in reviewing this expected testimony for background information on the Communist Party.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1940
JOHN LAUTNER - GOVERNMENT WITNESS

Re Cleveland letter, 4/20/51, enclosing two photographs, one of [] and one of []. These individuals are twins, and their photographs were forwarded to this office for review by Confidential Informant NYC CS 58.

b6
b7C

For the Bureau's information, LAUTNER tentatively identified from a roll of 16 millimeter motion picture film, a photograph of []. This motion picture film was received by this office from the Cleveland Office, for review by New York informants. The film covered a Communist Party meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, in October, 1950.

Confidential Informant NYC CS 588 immediately identified the photograph of [] as the man who drove the automobile in Cleveland, Ohio, on 1/14/50, at which time the informant was driven to a house located in a certain section of Ohio, where the informant's life was threatened by Communist Party members.

The informant stated that he could distinctly recall that [] (informant did not know [] by name) was the party member who drove the automobile and who was also referred to in the basement of the house where the informant was interrogated as the "lie detector specialist".

The informant stated that [] was supposed to be giving him the lie detector test by clamping some wires on his wrist and making him hold the wires in his hand and then was supposedly observing the lie detector machine which indicated that the informant was lying. The informant stated that he had no knowledge whether this machine was actually a lie detector machine or a make believe type of instrument, since he was sitting in a position where he could not observe the machine.

The informant stated that only comrades who can be trusted and counted on by Party leadership would be selected to give him the third degree treatment to try to establish whether the informant in January, 1950, was a government agent or not.

Reurlet, 4/30/51.

This is to advise that the above-captioned person is expected to appear in Washington around the end of May, 1951, at which time he will report to the Department of Justice, namely, Mr. LARRY BAILEY, Assistant to the Attorney General, who is connected with Mr. WILLIAM PAISLEY, in the prosecution of the Communist Party under the Internal Security Act of 1950.

LAUTNER will appear, as is now tentatively planned, as the last Government witness.

LAUTNER has advised that he had very little connection with Communist Party members in Washington, D.C. during his association with the Communist Party. LAUTNER advised that he had very little occasion to associate with members in the District of Columbia. However, LAUTNER will be more than willing to discuss any questions which agents of your office may wish to ask of him relative to the Communist Party activities in the District of Columbia area.

It should be noted, however, that when LAUTNER does appear in Washington, he will be working with the Attorney General's Office, who will be compensating him in the amount of $25 a day plus living expenses as a Government witness.

It should also be noted that when LAUTNER appears at the New York Office and is interviewed for several hours he is compensated in the amount of $20 a day.

If your office desires to have an interview with LAUTNER arrangements can be worked out with him by communicating with him when he calls at the Department of Justice during the end of May, 1951.

HIGH GOVERNMENT POSITION IN FRANCE. INFORMANT STATED HE BELIEVES THE CP LEADERSHIP HAS DECIDED THAT IF THEY REMAIN IN HIDING A FEW YEARS WITH THE PASSING OF TIME AND THE CHANGING OF INTERNATIONAL EVENTS, HIDING OUT FROM GOVERNMENT ARREST AT THIS TIME MAY LATER PROVE BENEFICIAL TO THEM. TWO) WOULD BE TO PROVIDE THE CP MEMBERSHIP WITH SOME TOP CP LEADERS WHO WOULD WORK UNDERGROUND TO PROVIDE LEADERSHIP, SET POLICY, ISSUE DIRECTIVES TO A DEVOTED CORPS OF UNDERGROUND COMRADES. INFORMANT REMARKED THAT THE FOUR MISSING CP LEADERS WOULD PROVIDE A STRONG NUCLEUS FOR A CENTRAL UNDERGROUND CPUSA GROUP AND COULD BE ASSISTED BY THE OTHER FOUR MISSING COMRADES OF STEIN, FINE JACKSON AND NORMAN. INFORMANT STATED THAT THE MISSING TOP CP LEADERS WOULD NOT ACT ON THEIR OWN AND IT IS DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE THE MISSING CP LEADERS ARE NOT IN CONTACT WITH OR RECEIVING ADVICE AND CONSULTATION FROM INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST LEADING FORCES. FROM COMMUNIST VIEWPOINT ON CONDITIONS WHICH NOW PREVAIL ARE THOSE CONDITIONS WHICH IN THE PAST IN ALL CASES MADE INTERNATIONAL HELP TO A GIVEN PARTY A NECESSITY. THESE CONDITIONS ARE A CONTINUATION CAMPAIGN OF PERSECUTE THEN GOVERNMENT ARREST AGAINST PARTY LEADERSHIP; DOMESTIC CONDITIONS WHICH MAKE IT PRACTICALLY IMPOSSIBLE FOR CP LEADERS AND MEMBERS TO PURSUE ACTIVITIES ON AN ORDERLY, UNHINDERED AND LEGAL BASIS. INFORMANT STATED THAT THE ABOVE CONDITIONS ARE FACING THE CP TODAY AND IN HIS OPINION FOR OVER THIRTY YEARS WHEN SUCH PARTIES HAVE FACED SIMILAR CONDITIONS THEY HAVE RECEIVED INTERNATIONAL AID IN THE FORM OF EMBASSIES, FINANCES AND SANCTUARIES. INFORMANT STATED THAT APPARENTLY ALL WORK AND ACTIVITY OF THE CPUSA HAS BEEN ADJUSTED TO FUNCTION ON AN UNDERCOVER AND ILLEGAL BASIS. THIS IS BASED ON A REMARK TO INFORMANT BY HENRY

WINSTON ON JUNE TWENTY THAT THE RULING OF THE SUPREME COURT PRACTICALLY OUTLAWED THE PARTY. INFORMANT BELIEVES THAT THE CP LEADERSHIP HAS INTERPRETED GOVERNMENT ARREST OF THE PARTY LEADERS AS AN INDICATION THAT THIS GOVERNMENT IS EMBARKING UPON A FASCIST CAUSE AND THEY HAVE DECIDED TO FIGHT BACK AGAINST GOVERNMENT ARREST THROUGH UNDERGROUND ACTIVITY. INFORMANT ALSO REMARKED THAT AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN DECIDING THAT THE LEADERS OF THE PARTY SHOULD GO INTO HIDING MAY BE BASED ON ANTICIPATION THAT SHARP CHANGES MAY BE EXPECTED IN TERMS OF THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION. INFORMANT BELIEVES THAT THE OBJECTIVE OF THE MISSING EIGHT CP LEADERS WOULD BE TO ESTABLISH AN UNDERGROUND CENTER WHICH WOULD PROVIDE THE LOWER CP ECHELON WITH INSTRUCTIONS AND DIRECTIVES, MANUSCRIPTS AND PROPAGANDA FOR OPERATION IN AN UNDERGROUND ACTIVITY. INFORMANT STATED THAT SUCH AN UNDERGROUND CENTER MAY BE LOCATED IN THIS COUNTRY OR COULD BE LOCATED IN MEXICO, CANADA OR CUBA AND POSSIBLY EUROPE. INFORMANT REMARKED THAT THE CANADIAN CP WHEN OUTLAWED IN NINETEEN THIRTYTHREE OPERATED IN NYC FROM NINETEEN THIRTYTHREE TO NINETEEN THIRTYSIX. INFORMANT STATED THAT THE RECENT ACTION OF THE FOUR TOP MISSING LEADERS WILL ESTABLISH PARTY POLICY FOR ALL DISTRICT CP LEADERS AND THAT MANY OF THEM MAY GO IN HIDING. INFORMANT HAD NO KNOWLEDGE AS TO THE LOCATION OF THE MISSING COMRADES BUT BASED ON INSTRUCTIONS FROM WINSTON ISSUED JUNE TWENTY LAST TO STAND-BY AND AWAIT FURTHER CONTACT INFORMANT IS DOING THE SAME. WOULD BE LOOKED UPON SUSPICIOUSLY. INFORMANT OF OPINION THAT PERHAPS [REDACTED] [REDACTED], WHOM HE BELIEVES TO BE CONNECTED WITH ARRANGING CP HIDE-OUTS, MAY CONTACT HIM IN THE NEAR FUTURE. INFORMANT HAS BEEN ALERTED TO FURNISH INFORMATION IMMEDIATELY TO THIS OFFICE. LOUIS F. DUDENZ WAS INTERVIEWED AND ADVISED THAT IT WAS HIS OPINION THAT THE FOUR TOP MISSING COMMUNISTS, NAMELY GREEN, THOMPSON, WINGSTON AND HALL HAD REMAINED BEHIND IN ORDER TO DIRECT THE UNDERGROUND. DUDENZ BASED HIS OPINION SINCE THESE FOUR ARE ORGANIZATIONAL MEN RATHER THAN THEORETICIANS. ALSO THESE MEN ARE RELATIVELY YOUNG AND ARE ALL AMERICAN BORN COMRADES. INFORMANT STATED THAT THESE MEN MIGHT USE SOME SORT OF DISGUISE IN REGARDS TO THEIR PHYSICAL MAKE-UP WHICH MAY AFFORD THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO MOVE ABOUT THE COUNTRY MORE FREELY. DUDENZ THOUGHT THAT THE FOUR MIGHT REMAIN OUT OF CUSTODY JUST LONG ENOUGH TO COMPLETELY SET UP THE UNDERGROUND ORGANIZATION AND THEN MAY SURRENDER. DUDENZ SPECULATED THAT POSSIBLY THE ARREST OF THE SEVENTEEN SECONDARY LEVEL LEADERS INTERRUPTED THE PLANS FOR ORGANIZING THE UNDERGROUND AND FOR THIS REASON THE TOP FOUR HAD TO REMAIN AWAY TO RUN THE ORGANIZATION FROM AN UNDERGROUND LEVEL EITHER IN THE USA OR IN CANADA. DUDENZ ALSO COMMENTED THAT THE OTHER FOUR MISSING COMRADES, NAMELY STEIN, FINE, JACKSON AND KORMAN, ARE ALSO ORGANIZATIONAL MEN AND THAT THEY COULD BE WORKING WITH THE TOP FOUR ORGANIZING THE UNDERGROUND. NYC GS FIVE EIGHT EIGHT WAS INTERVIEWED AND ADVISED THAT THE DECISION ON THE PART OF THE TOP FOUR LEADERS TO GO INTO HIDING WAS NOT A DECISION OF THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES NOR COULD IT BE

THIS INFORMANT STATED THAT HE BELIEVES THE TOP LEADERSHIP, NAMELY WINSTON, HALL, WAS IN CONSULTATION WITH AND MAY BE RECEIVING AID IN THE FORM OF SANCTUARY FROM OTHER PARTIES OUTSIDE OF THE USA, SUCH AS THE MEXICAN OR CANADIAN PARTY. INFORMANT STATED THAT THE TOP FOUR LEADERS WOULD FORM A STRONG UNDERGROUND LEADERSHIP BEING ASSISTED BY THE OTHER MISSING FOUR. INFORMANT STATED THAT EVEN IN NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT SHORTLY AFTER THE INDICTMENT AGAINST THE ELEVEN CP LEADERS WAS HANDED DOWN IN THE SDNY THE LEADERSHIP BEGAN ARRANGING OR PLANNING PLACES OF HIDE OUT IN AND ABOUT THE NYC AREA. INFORMANT BELIEVED THAT SUCH INSTRUCTIONS WERE ISSUED TO PROBABLY ALL CP DISTRICTS. INFORMANT STATED THAT IN NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT NAMES OF LOYAL AND DEVOTED PARTY PEOPLE WERE SUBMITTED TO THOSE ARRANGING CP HIDE-OUTS. THE NAMES OF SUCH PEOPLE WERE NOT TOO WELL KNOWN AS LOYAL OR SYMPATHETIC PARTY PEOPLE IN THAT THEY DID NOT ENGAGE IN OPEN OR PUBLIC FORM OF CP ACTIVITY AT THAT TIME. INFORMANT STATED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH PEOPLE'S LOYALTY WERE KNOWN TO THE CP LEADERSHIP AND THEIR PLACES OF RESIDENCE, ETC., MAY BE USED AS HIDE-OUTS AT THIS TIME. INFORMANT COULD NOT FURNISH THE NAMES OF ANY PERSONS WHOSE PLACES WERE DESIGNATED AS HIDE-OUTS BUT FROM REMARKS AND OBSERVATION ON HIS PART IN NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT IN AND ABOUT CP HEADQUARTERS HE REALIZED THAT SUCH A PLAN WAS IN THE MAKING. INFORMANT ALSO STATED THAT IN AND ABOUT NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT BILL NORMAN REMARKED TO HIM THAT PARTY LEADERS HAVE BEEN ALERTED THAT THEY SHOULD ALWAYS

BE READY TO DISGUISE THEIR PHYSICAL AND HABITUAL CHARACTERISTICS. INFORMANT STATED FROM THE REMARK MADE BY NORMAN LE GATHERED THAT THE DAY WHEN CP LEADERS ARE IN HIDING HE WOULD SUSPECT THAT THEY WILL ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE THEMSELVES AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE. INFORMANT STATED THAT THE DECISION TO HIDE OUT FROM GOVERNMENT ARREST WILL BE A STIMULANT TO THE DEVOTED PARTY MEMBERS WHO ARE WILLING TO FORM THE UNDERGROUND AND CONTINUE PARTY ACTIVITY. RE: CP, USA - BRIEF
CP, USA - UNDERGROUND ACTIVITY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

NYC CS 588 advised the writer on July 5, 1951, that as early as 1948, while he was serving as chairman of the Review Commission of the CP, New York State at 35 E. 12th Street, NYC, certain comrades at Headquarters were instructed to arrange places of hide-out for CP leaders. Informant stated that he did not have anything to do with the planning or the arranging of such hide-outs but from remarks made to him together with observations on his part, he was aware that various places to be used as hide-outs were arranged. Informant stated that this plan was put into effect by the Party shortly after the indictment against the 11 convicted CP leaders was handed up in the SDNY.

Informant stated that he recalled that ANDREW REMES was summoned into CP Headquarters, NYC, from the Milwaukee District to arrange a program. Informant stated that he often overheard REMES and other comrades talk "What kind of place would be desirable for a hide-out?" Informant stated that he gathered that the following requirements would be necessary before a hide-out would be selected:

1. Unquestionable devotion of Party loyalty on the part of the person selected to hide-away someone.
2. The person selected would not be too well known as a CP member or too well known as a Party sympathizer. This person would only be one whose activity was limited to donations and contributions to the Party funds, etc. (Informant was of the opinion that in 1948 or sooner, certain people were told to drift away from the Party activity so that they could be of value to the Party later on.)

3. Select an apartment house where there is no doorman or elevator man, preferably a walk-up apartment house of three or four stories.
4. Select a family where both husband and wife's loyalty and trustworthiness are known to the Party and where there are no children or maid, etc.
5. Select an apartment where there are no articulate neighbors.
6. Select a loyal couple who can accommodate a guest, such as an apartment that may have an extra bedroom or sleeping quarters, etc.
7. Select an apartment where a pay telephone station would be near-by.
8. Select a neighborhood that is familiar or well known to the person residing in the neighborhood so as he can determine from inquiries from friendly neighbors if any inquiries made, etc.

The informant stated that based upon his five years of experience as a Party official at CP Headquarters, the following comrades in his opinion were those whom he believed would be engaged or connected directly or indirectly with the CP underground organization. Informant stated that he believes that anyone of these comrades listed below may at one time or another come in contact with any of the eight missing comrades, namely HALL, WINSTON, THOMPSON, GREEN, STEIN, FINE, MARRON, JACKSON.

Informant stated that each of these persons either arranged contacts for REMES or comrades in their respective counties who could be counted on to furnish places of hide-outs or informant thought that the above listed people furnished a list of names of trusted comrades not too well known as Party members who reside in their respective counties who could be approached to offer assistance.

This informant has furnished valuable information to the New York Office relative to Communist Party leaders who are presently under investigation and has supplied information on Communist Party organizational activities.

It should be noted that while the informant was associated with the Communist Party, he was considered a New York State Communist Party functionary, and as such, his position brought him in contact with many of the Communist Party leaders, both on the state and national levels.

Informant has furnished information which he received while in the Communist Party relative to Communist Party underground activity and Communist Party security measures.

This informant has been extremely cooperative in rendering any assistance he can to this office.

The U. S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York has also expressed great satisfaction with [redacted]

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1940
JOHN LAUTNER - GOVERNMENT WITNESS
(New York file 100-102320)

Remylet 6-13-51.

JOHN LAUTNER arrived in Cleveland from the West coast on August 7, 1951 and accompanied by Special Agents of this Office traveled the Kingsbury Run area of Cleveland to locate the house in which he was interrogated by JOE BRANDT, SOL WELLMAN and JACK KLING.

The house was pretty well identified by JOHN LAUTNER as being [redacted] Cleveland, Ohio. This house met the description given by JOHN LAUTNER with the exception that it is on the opposite side of the street from the tavern having a door cut in the corner.

A check of the Cleveland indices reflects that the occupant of this house [redacted] signed an election petition on behalf of [redacted] in September of 1943. [redacted] at that time was a candidate for councilman of the City of Cleveland.

It is also noted that the pertinent house is on the next street north of the street on which [redacted] lives. According to JOHN LAUTNER on Saturday, January 14, 1951 he attended a movie at the Hippodrome Theatre with JACK KLING and thereafter at approximately 3:45 PM went to a Hungarian Restaurant on 9th Street where they ate and where JACK KLING made a telephone call. They then walked to St. Clair and about East 12th Street where they boarded a St. Clair streetcar, east bound. He recalls leaving the streetcar at East 105th Street and St. Clair. He now recalls the Standard Drug Store on the Southeast corner of East 105th and St. Clair. He and JACK KLING had forty-five minutes to an hour to waste at this point and they walked west on St. Clair talking and looking in store windows. They walked as far as East 93rd Street where he definitely recalls the Berg's Furniture Company where they loitered looking at children's furniture.

LAUTNER and KLING then retraced their steps to East 105th and St. Clair and were picked up about 6:10 PM by [redacted] driving an old dilapidated four door sedan. They proceeded East as far as Shaker Heights over devious routes. During the ride an amiable conversation was being conducted between LAUTNER and KLING. He recalls coming West on Kinsman Road and believes they turned off Kinsman on East 93rd Street going South to St. Catherine Street and then to Union Avenue. He definitely recalls going over the bridge on Union Avenue and identified the Electric Plant West of the bridge as the three story factory building which was all lit up on that night. He also recalls seeing the refineries in the distance at this point. The car then proceeded by devious routes to Mead Avenue and Broadway where the Chief's Tavern is located having a door cut in the corner.

b7C

The house at [redacted] from the corner but on the right hand side of the street. He recalls the car parking on the opposite side of the street and walking across the street to the house. LAUTNER recalls being in the basement of the house for approximately two hours after which he was lead out of the house by the two unknown individuals and [redacted]. He was placed in the car and after two or three minutes went over a wooden plank bridge having a definite hump. The only bridge of this type is on Praha Avenue which was found to be exactly two minutes driving time from [redacted].

b7C

The factory at the location where LAUTNER was left out of the car was identified on Ashland Avenue between Longfellow and Cedar Avenues. This factory is approximately seven to nine minutes driving time from the Praha bridge. At Cedar Avenue and Ashland Avenue LAUTNER boarded a Cedar Avenue bus which discharged him at East 2nd Street and Prospect in downtown Cleveland.

All of these locations were viewed by JOHN LAUTNER and he is pretty well satisfied that they are the locations described by him in his statement to the New York Agents.

On 9/24/51 the writer interviewed Confidential Source NYC 588 in connection with the identification of an individual known to the Informant as [] who had asked the Informant in 1948 concerning the whereabouts of BERNARD CHESTER, explaining that a "chemist from Brooklyn" wanted to get in touch with him.

b7C

Subsequent investigation indicated that the person NYC 588 knew as [] was most probably [], who was known in the Party as [] and who, during the war years, had been employed at Party Headquarters as secretary to various individuals, including ROBERT THOMPSON.

A photograph of [] was exhibited to the Informant and he identified her positively as the woman who made the inquiry in behalf of the Brooklyn chemist.

b7C

After viewing this photograph, the Informant stated that he could now recall that this individual's name was [] and that in addition to being secretary for various Communist Party functionaries, she had also been in charge of typists and other office personnel and on some occasions had acted as receptionist at the Headquarters.

On 9/24/51 the writer interviewed Confidential Source NYC 588 in order to determine more fully his understanding of the subject's functions and activities in connection with the Communist Party.

The Informant stated that he first met [REDACTED] in the summer of 1949 when an individual named SAM ROSEN, who was also known as SAM BERMAN, was helping NYC 588 in a search for a French 16 mm. movie camera which belonged to the Communist Party and had been used by STEVE MILLER. ROSEN told the Informant that an artist named [REDACTED] had kept a camera for the Party in his studio apartment and that there was a possibility that the missing movie camera might also be found at this place. ROSEN then accompanied the Informant to [REDACTED] studio at [REDACTED] and introduced the Informant to [REDACTED]. On the occasion of this visit, ROSEN opened a leather suitcase which was stored in [REDACTED] apartment and demonstrated how a camera and other equipment, which was kept in the suitcase, could be set up to photograph documents.

b7C

The Informant stated that ROSEN on this occasion stated that this camera had done very good work for the "Party", that it had been used to photograph Party documents and also "other documents". ROSEN also mentioned that JACOB GOLOS had used this camera and that BERNIE CHESTER had also used this camera.

[REDACTED] was present during the demonstration of the camera and joined in a discussion regarding the manner in which GOLOS had gotten "tied up" with ELIZABETH BENTLEY.

The Informant stated that he was quite impressed with the use that could be made of [] apartment for purposes of holding secret meetings. [] agreed that it would be satisfactory to him to hold such meetings and that meetings were subsequently held on several occasions. One of such meetings was a meeting of the National Board of the Communist Party which was held while the trial of the eleven Communist leaders was being conducted in the Southern District of New York and among others EUGENE DENNIS, ROBERT THOMPSON and JOHN GATES were present on this occasion. NYC 588 said that he recalled that this particular meeting had been arranged when JACK KLING had asked the Informant if he knew of a place where a private meeting could be held and the Informant called [] and made the arrangements.

NYC 588 explained that whenever a meeting was held in [] apartment, he would be notified in advance by telephone or messenger. [] would then wait for the first person who was to be in attendance at the meeting to arrive, at which time [] would leave and return at some agreed hour after the meeting would have been completed.

NYC 588 said that he knew that [] was a "member at large" of the Communist Party and that he was connected with BERNARD CHESTER. He did not know exactly what [] functions in connection with the Party were, except as described above, but that he was under the impression that he had some connection with CHESTER'S undercover activities.

NYC 588 stated that ROSEN (BERMAN) fitted in the same category with [] with respect to his Party activities. He said that he had known ROSEN for years and knew that he was not active in any of the Party's open groups or sections and appeared at Party Headquarters very infrequently. 588 said that ROSEN was a fur worker by trade and that he was probably employed around 333 Seventh Avenue. The Informant stated that ROSEN was about 50 to 55 years of age, 5' 6" to 5' 7" in height, of stocky build, with a full head of hair which was brown but graying and worn combed straight back without a part.

MEMO

The Informant stated that ROSEN was formerly married to a wealthy woman, whose name the Informant does not recall. When last known to the Informant, he lived alone in a rooming house around 74th or 75th Street in Manhattan. He said that he could recall ROSEN [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and that the only foreign travel that he ever heard ROSEN mention was a trip to Palestine sometime around 1947 or 1948. The Informant stated that he believes ROSEN is foreign born and noted that he speaks with a very heavy accent.

CS NYC 588 called attention today to an article which appeared in the "NY Times" on 9/16/51. The article, which is attached hereto, under a SAN SALVADOR 8/14 dateline, is to the effect that short wave radio programs from behind the Iron Curtain and from Communist China Blanket Central America nightly. The broadcasts, in English and Spanish alternately, originate in Hungary as the "Voice of Budapest" and in Peiping as the "Voice of Moscow". Reception is generally excellent.

CS NYC 588 states that he is well acquainted with the voices of American Communists who have either gone or been deported to Hungary during the last few years. Informant believes that if these people are doing the broadcasting he would be able to identify them from transcriptions of the broadcasts.

The foregoing is submitted for the Bureau's consideration.

TIESLER was born September 26, 1895 at Johannesburg, South Africa to AMY FLORENCE HORNE, a British subject, and SIDNEY J. JENNINGS, native of Kentucky. She claims derivative citizenship by virtue of her father's nativity.

She was educated at the Spence School, New York City and received a BA in Home Economics from Barnard College, New York City.

At the time of her arrest in Mexico City, the subject stated that she was a widow. The file reflects that she was married to HANS TIESLER who was born in Germany and who was self-employed. HANS was last seen by neighbors in 1945 and prior to this date he had informed neighbors that he was "fed up" with this country and that immediately after the conclusion of World War II, he was going to move to Canada where he had property.

The subject has a sister, MARY JENNINGS, who was also born in South Africa and who is a medical doctor. Her last address was listed as 901 Lexington Avenue, New York City. Current directories do not reflect a listing for her at this address.

The subject also has one brother, PHILIP JENNINGS, who was last known to be employed by the Magnolia Oil Corporation in Texas.

The file reflects that at the time the subject made application for employment at the Republic Aircraft Corporation, she submitted the following references:

The file also reflects that in 1920 the subject and her parents applied for a passport to visit England and France for the purpose of visiting relatives. In 1932 the subject was also issued a passport for the purpose of visiting several countries in Europe including Russia.

The file reflects further that TIESLER has been an active Communist for a number of years and that she has held the position of Secretary and also of Treasurer of the Nassau-Suffolk Branch of the Communist Party.

Through excellent coverage in the neighborhood of TIESLER'S residences at 41 West 1st Street, Freeport, Long Island and 164 Frankel Boulevard, Merrick, Long Island, the names and address of numerous contacts of the subject are available. Leads are currently being set forth to conduct investigation of these individuals with the view in mind of locating the possible hideout of the remaining seven fugitives and also the hideout of GUS HALL, who reportedly resided with a middle aged Jewish couple on Long Island during the period that he was a fugitive.

It is to be noted that TIESLER is currently residing at the home of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] whose whereabouts at the present time are unknown.

It is to be further noted that this residence has also been used by [REDACTED] who is a close associate of JAMES JACKSON and that JACKSON has been known to use the automobile registered to [REDACTED]

It is also to be noted that according to information supplied by Sec. Inft. NY 588, [REDACTED] has been closely associated in the past with GEORGE WATT and that [REDACTED] is suspected of organizing the Communist Party underground for hiding out fugitives.

b7C

The file further reflects that TIESLER moved into the [REDACTED] residence in January of this year and that according to neighborhood informants, was missing for quite a period of time during April and May, 1951.

On February 4, 1951, the subject secured an Ohio license plate for her automobile which is numbered 9483C. This license was secured for a 1939 Ford sedan and this car is now registered in the subject's maiden name, AMY JENNINGS, at 802 Mason, Toledo, Ohio.

The Cleveland Office has been requested to obtain further information concerning this registration.

The following is a description of the subject which is reflected on her Security Index Card:

Born:	September 26, 1895 Johannesburg, South Africa

RE: CP, USA-COMMUNIST FUGITIVES
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On October 11, 1951, CSNYC 588, of known reliability, advised SAS JOHN W. DOOLEY and JAMES T. NEAGLE, that early in 1949, during the trial of the eleven Communist leaders, he accompanied AMY TIESLER to a two-family house which was located 200 yards southeast of the intersection of Rockaway Boulevard and Burnside Avenue in Cedarhurst, Long Island, for the purpose of finding suitable quarters to hold a National Committee meeting of the Communist Party.

This informant stated that this house was occupied at that time by the families of two sisters. It was the informant's recollection that each of those sisters had several small children. The informant was unable to recall the names of the occupants of this house.

Informant further advised that arrangements were made with these occupants to spend a weekend in New York City, thus leaving the house vacant and available for this committee meeting.

Informant further stated that TIESLER was a County Organizer of the Communist Party in the Nassau-Suffolk area and that prior to that time she was secretary to the County Organizer. The informant said she had a couple of strong branches in Long Beach, Freeport, and around Huntington, Long Island, which branches were composed mostly of the "professional set". The informant said she also had a branch in the Rockaways and that she became involved in a jurisdictional dispute with the Queens County Branch over this section. Also the informant said that she had two or three branches at Republic Aircraft Corporation and that she had isolated contacts throughout Long Island.

It was the informant's opinion that because of [] close association with GEORGE WATT that [] must be connected with the underground organization within the Communist Party whose duty it is to provide cover and concealment for top level Communist functionaries who are going underground either to avoid custody or prosecution or merely for the purpose of directing the Party's operations.

Concerning [] this informant advised that it was his recollection that at one time he had been told that [] had secured an isolated place somewhere in Nassau County which place was considered as a possible hideout for ISRAEL AMTER or as a possible clandestine print shop.

The informant said that this place was occupied only by the owner or perhaps the caretaker. He was not positive as to the identification of the occupant of this place.

He also said that he did not know the exact whereabouts of this place, but he is positive that AMY TIESLER would know its location.

It is to be noted that [] whereabouts have not been known since May 29, 1951.

b6
b7C

Further concerning AMY TIESLER, the informant stated that she is of an adventurous nature and that he does not consider her to be politically strong. The informant said that AMY is not suited for this type of work and that she uses it as an outlet for her emotions.

The informant said that he is of the confirmed opinion that under skillful questioning, AMY would be inclined to talk because he said she is not a hardened Communist and can be easily upset.

The informant could furnish no further information of value concerning the location or identity of the middle aged Jewish couple with whom HALL was reportedly staying immediately prior to his capture.

IS-C

It has recently come to the attention of this division that JOHN LAUTNER, or [REDACTED] will probably be used as a witness in the Smith Act trial in your division. The information available indicates that this witness will be used to testify to the over-all organization of the Communist Party, USA.

As you are aware, seven Communist Party members were arrested in Honolulu on August 28, 1951, and subsequently indicted by a Federal Grand Jury being charged with a violation of the Smith Act. Plea date in these cases has been set for November 30 next with an early trial anticipated thereafter.

The seven subjects arrested by this division are:

[REDACTED]
CHARLES FUJIMOTO
EILEEN FUJIMOTO

[REDACTED]
JOHN ERNEST REINECKE

Inasmuch as one of the counts charged in the indictment is that the Communist Party of Hawaii is a branch of District 13 of the Communist Party, USA, this division is desirous of securing a competent witness with knowledge of the over-all Communist Party organization to testify to this particular breakdown of the Communist Party organization. It is therefore requested that if the potential witness above mentioned is presently in your district, he be interviewed for any information in this specific regard as well as any admissible evidence concerning the above listed seven subjects in this division.

If the witness is not presently located in your division, it is further requested that you cause such interview to be conducted by whichever division office is covering his present whereabouts and furnish this office with a copy of the letter requesting such interview.

In view of the early plea date, please give this matter expeditious attention.

In connection with the Smith Act prosecutions at Baltimore, this will confirm telephonic instructions given to Special Agent T. J. McAndrews on November 28, 1951.

In accordance with a request received from the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, John Lautner, confidential source of the New York Office, is requested to be in Baltimore, Maryland, at 6:00 P.M., December 6, 1951, for a pretrial conference with the United States Attorney there. The United States Attorney's Office in Baltimore will advise the Baltimore Office prior to December 6, 1951, the hotel at which Lautner is to stay while in Baltimore. Therefore, Lautner should be advised by the New York Office prior to his departure that he should immediately upon his arrival in Baltimore contact our Baltimore Office by telephone at which time he will be given the name of the hotel where reservations will have been made for him.

There is enclosed a blank United States Government Request for Transportation (J256,377) which was furnished to the Bureau by the Department with the request that it be given to Lautner prior to the time he leaves New York. When Lautner is furnished the instructions set forth above, he should be given the transportation request.

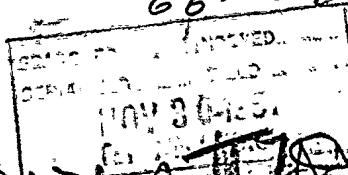

The Baltimore Office should keep the Bureau advised regarding all developments in this case.

Re: JOHN LAUTNER
CS NYC 588

At 9:00 A. M., 11/29/51, Mr. Fred Baumgardner, Bureau, telephonically advised the writer that [redacted] of the Department desires LAUTNER to be in Baltimore at 6:00 P. M., 12/4/51. LAUTNER is to call the FBI Office in Baltimore as soon as he arrives and he will be advised as to his hotel accommodations by the Baltimore Office. The Department will also furnish a GTR or a train ticket to the Bureau for LAUTNER. This GTR or train ticket will be sent to NYO either by messenger or by mail in time for LAUTNER to use it on 12/4/51. Mr. Baumgardner requested that this office maintain contact with LAUTNER so that his appearance in Baltimore will be guaranteed.

The above information was furnished to SA Francis P. Carr.

MEMO

Mr. Fred Baumgardner called from the Bureau and stated that he has been in touch with Supervisor Tom McAndrews in regard to JOHN LAUTNER, one of the Smith Act cases. Mr. Baumgardner said that the United States Attorney wanted LAUTNER in Baltimore on Tuesday night, December 4th, at 6:00 pm for a pre-trial conference. He said that LAUTNER should call the Bureau office upon arriving in Baltimore.

Mr. Baumgardner also mentioned that yesterday the Bureau sent us a letter advising of the need for LAUTNER in Baltimore. However, the date was indicated as December 6th and the U. S. Attorney now wants it changed to December 4th. The letter also contains a travel order for LAUTNER.

Mr. Baumgardner requested that Supervisor McAndrews check and determine if LAUTNER can be in Baltimore on December 4th and call him back today.

CONCERNING HIS BACKGROUND WHICH MAY NOT BE KNOWN TO NEW YORK OR BUREAU.
LAUTOER STATED THAT AT THE DIRECTION OF GUS MAJER, HEAD OF THE NATIONAL HUNGARIAN BUREAU OF THE CP, IN MAY, NINETEEN THIRTY, HE MARRIED GOLDIE ROTH, SISTER OF JOHANNA ROTH, HEAD OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE DEPT. OF THE IWO IN NEW YORK CITY. LAUTOER STATED THAT GOLDIE HAD JUST COME INTO THE COUNTRY FROM HUNGARY AND WAS IN ON A STUDENT VISA AND WAS DESCRIBED TO HIM AS PROMISING MATERIAL FOR THE CP. THE PURPOSE OF THE MARRIAGE WAS TO PERMIT GOLDIE TO STAY IN THE U.S. AS AN INDIVIDUAL MARRIED TO AN AMERICAN CITIZEN. AT THE TIME OF THE AFOREMENTIONED REQUEST, LAUTOER WAS TOLD BY K MAJER THAT THE REQUEST WAS A PARTY DECISION. IT WAS MADE CLEAR TO LAUTOER THAT THE MARRIAGE WOULD BE IN FORM ONLY AND THAT A DIVORCE COULD BE SECURED LATER. LAUTOER STATED THAT IN MAY, NINETEEN

LAUTOER STATED THAT TOTH LATER WENT TO DAYTON, OHIO AS ORGANIZER BUT BELIEVED PRESENTLY OUT OF CP AND WORKING IN NEW YORK AS HEADWAITER. LAUTOER STATED THAT HE LATER LEARNED THAT HE WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE GONE THROUGH SUCH A CEREMONY FOR THE SAME PURPOSE WITH THE SISTER OF LOUIS WEINSTOCK AND THAT ALEX. VOROS, CP HUNGARIAN FUNCTIONARY, ACTUALLY MARRIED WEINSTOCK-S SISTER IN SAME MANNER AS DID LAUTOER WITH GOLDIE. LATER IN NINETEEN THIRTY THREE WHILE IN CLEVELAND LAUTOER WAS SERVED WITH DIVORCE PAPERS FROM GOLDIE. LAUTOER ALSO STATED THAT HE LIVED WITH CHARLOTTE MALAMED FROM NINETEEN THIRTY THREE TO NINETEEN FORTY IN NYC AND WEST VIRGINIA. HE DESCRIBES CHARLOTTE AS A FELLOW CP MEMBER. IN WEST VIRGINIA, CHARLOTTE WAS ORGANIZATIONAL SECRETARY OF CP WHEN LAUTOER WAS DISTRICT ORGANIZER. HE ALSO DESCRIBES CHARLOTTE AS HAVING A FUNCTIONARY OF THE JEWISH

CSNYC 588, during the week 12/9 to 12/15/51 was interviewed twice - on 12/10 & 12/11/51.

On these occasions he furnished valuable information in connection with the case entitled: "CP USA - Brief; IS - C" (NY file 100-81752) information relative to the disruption of the Communist Party as a result of security investigations by comparing CP activities in 1951 with those in 1945 (NY file 100-80641) and other cases."

In view of this it is believed that his regularly authorized remuneration of $20.00 per interview is justified.

TRAINING UNIT

As previously advised, JOHN LAUTNER was interviewed, on a pre-trial basis, at Baltimore, on December 5 and 6 last.

Special Assistant to the Attorney General [redacted] and [redacted] assistant, [redacted] of the Department, as well as SAs EDWARD G. GOUGH and JAMES V. SULLIVAN participated in the aforementioned interview.

It is to be noted that the United States Attorney, at Baltimore, HERWARD J. FLYNN, had requested that [redacted] make the necessary arrangements for the appearance of Mr. LAUTNER at Baltimore on the above dates and also requested the attendance of the Agents so that he could evaluate the use of Mr. LAUTNER on the forthcoming Smith Act trials at Baltimore. However, on the morning of December 5, the United States Attorney advised that he would not be able to participate in the interview due to his preoccupation with the preparation for and the actual trial of another matter before Justice [redacted] on December 6. Mr. FLYNN requested that he be advised of the information given by Mr. LAUTNER. In that regard, Mr. FLYNN had also requested that [redacted] make arrangements for the appearance of PAUL CROUCH for interview at Baltimore on December 7. On the evening of December 6, Mr. FLYNN advised that he would attend the interview on December 7; however, Mr. FLYNN did not participate in the interview and for reasons unknown to either [redacted] or the Agents.

On December 12, [redacted] of Cleveland was interviewed at Baltimore and present at this interview were [redacted] of the Cleveland Office and SAs GOUGH and SULLIVAN.

At the present time, two departmental attorneys are reviewing the summary productive reports of the Smith Act subjects and also reviewing those informant reports on which Bureau clearance has been secured. They have also begun interview on a pre-trial basis of those informants whose reports they have reviewed. According to these attorneys, the results of their interviews are being given to Mr. FLYNN so that he may make the decision as to whether or not the informants will be used as witnesses in the trials. Present during the aforementioned interviews were those Baltimore Agents who generally handle the informants.

Enclosed for the information of the Bureau and New York are blind memoranda incorporating, in summary fashion, information given by Mr. LAUTNER. The memoranda also include some information given by the New York Office to Baltimore. The memoranda does not include, in detail, all of the developments of various subject matter given by LAUTNER. That information is already in the possession of both the United States Attorney, Baltimore, and the United States Attorney, New York, in the form of detailed "Witness Sheets" comprising 59 pages of questions and answers that was made available to the United States Attorneys by the Department. According to [redacted] these "Witness Sheets" were drawn up at the time LAUTNER was questioned by the Department in connection with the McCarran hearings.

Copies of the enclosed memoranda are being given to the United States Attorney at Baltimore and [redacted] and one copy is being retained in the bulky exhibit of the captioned Baltimore file.

Enclosed also for New York is the material previously furnished Baltimore by New York letter captioned "CP, USA - BRIEF, INTERNAL SECURITY - C" dated 11/30/51.

BACKGROUND

JOHN LAUTNER, JR. was born in Hungary, January 1, 1902. His father was JOHN LAUTNER and his mother MARY BALOGH LAUTNER. He has three brothers, namely FRANK, LEONARD and MICHAEL, and two sisters, LILLIAN CLARK and ISABELLE SCHUNK. All of these individuals are presently living in Youngstown, Ohio with the exception of the father who died in the 1930's. None of the family was a member of the Communist Party or in sympathy with the Communist Party.

When LAUTNER was sixteen months of age, his family came to the United States on the "SS Kaiser Wilhelm" from Bremen, Germany, arrived at New York City, and proceeded immediately to Mahaness, Pennsylvania where they resided until LAUTNER was approximately 4 1/2 years of age, when the family moved to Freeland, Pennsylvania where LAUTNER's father worked as a foreman in the mines. After a short residence the family moved to New York City until LAUTNER was approximately 6 years of age when the whole family returned to Hungary. The reason for the return to Hungary was because of the financial straits of the family and the desire of the parents to visit their homeland.

Due in part to the intervention of World War I LAUTNER did not return with his family to the United States until July, 1920. While in Hungary LAUTNER attended public grammar school and high school and a year and a half at a teachers college in Munkacs. In July, 1920 LAUTNER and his family returned to the United States on the "SS Rotterdam" from Holland and proceeded to Youngstown, Ohio.

For a period of about a year and a half, beginning September, 1920, LAUTNER worked in the Republic Iron and Steel Company in the tube mills. For a short period of time he went to Cleveland where he worked as a paperhanger and helper, and then to Arizona for a few months, but returned to Youngstown in 1922. In that city he worked with his father on construction work as a bricklayer for about six years, after which he went to Cleveland, and then in 1928 came to New York City, joining Local #34 of the Bricklayers Union in New York City. He was employed as a bricklayer by the Fishman Realty Company, the Colon Construction Company and the Knickerbocker Ice Company. In 1929, since there was no construction work available, he turned his union card into the union.

While in Youngstown LAUTNER, on 2/16/23, filed a Declaration of Intention to become a citizen of the United States at the Court of Common Pleas, Youngstown, Ohio. The Declaration of Intention bears Number 10960. On 5/27/26 he was issued a Petition for Naturalization bearing Number 6752 and a Certificate of Naturalization bearing Number 2261454. The records of the Court of Common Pleas at Youngstown, Ohio indicate that LAUTNER filed his Petition and Declaration, etc. under the name of JOHN LAUTNER, JR., giving as his address 464 West Havenwood Avenue, Youngstown, Ohio. His occupation is given as bricklayer and his birth date is noted as 1/1/02, Hungary. It is noted that he emigrated from Rotterdam, Holland, July 2, 1920 and arrived in New York City July 14, 1920. His Certificate of Arrival bears Number 96509 under the name of JOHN LAUTNER, JR. The witnesses to his Citizenship Declaration are MARIA LAUTNER, housewife, and MIKE LAUTNER, bricklayer, both having the same address as JOHN LAUTNER, JR.

COMMUNIST PARTY ACTIVITIES

LAUTNER advised he joined the Communist Party, USA at the end of 1929. He stated he met a group of Hungarians at the Hungarian Community Center, 350 East 81st Street, NYC. One of the members of the group was ALEXANDER VOROS whose real name was ALEXANDER BORN, and who was Dramatic Director at the Community Center. This individual sponsored LAUTNER for membership in the Communist Party. LAUTNER states that VOROS fought with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain and was later expelled from the Communist Party for being a Trotskyite.

LAUTNER states that in 1929, after joining the Party, he was assigned to the Yorkville Party Unit in New York City with headquarters at 350 East 81st Street. In January, February, March, April and May of 1930 he attended a training school for Communist Party members of Hungarian descent. The training school was held on Union Square, New York City in the building that housed both the District Headquarters of the Party and the "Daily Worker". LAUTNER stated that he was recommended to the school by GUS WEJER, Secretary of the Hungarian National Bureau of the Communist Party.

LAUTNER stated that the Hungarian National Bureau was part of the Language Department which in turn was a sub-division of the National Committee of the Communist Party. LAUTNER stated that the Language Department had supervision over foreign language groups. In this school, J. PETER was instructor of Political Economy. PETER at that time was Manager of the "Daily Worker". JAMES LUSTIG, Editor of the Hungarian Communist Party newspaper, gave instructions on Leninism. JOHN SANTO, Communist Party functionary active in the Transport Workers Union, was instructor in the program of the Communist Internationale. JOHN GYETVAI was instructor in Dialectical Materialism. OUS MAJER lectured in Communist Work Among Hungarian Communities. LOUIS WEINSTOCK lectured on the History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. LOUIS BREBETS lectured on the Communist Manifesto. ANTONIA WEXLER lectured on the Paris Commune. JOSEPH FERNER lectured on IWO Administration. LOUIS KOVACS lectured on the Communist Party Organization.

LAUTNER identifies Dr. JOHN GYETVAI as Editor of the "Nagyar Jovo" and at present time Hungarian Ambassador to Turkey. The purpose of the training school was to prepare prospective functionaries for the Communist Party. LAUTNER defines a functionary as a member who is elected or appointed to a specific position of responsibility in the Party organization on any level. At the training school the students' expenses were paid for and they were given a daily allowance for food and books and any of the students who came from out of town had their rent paid by the Party. The school was subsidized by the Hungarian National Bureau of the Communist Party. About fifteen individuals attended this school and LAUTNER finished with the highest grades.

It is to be noted that LOUIS BREBETS, presently Hungarian Cabinet Member of Government - Minister of Transportation; JAMES LUSTIG who in 1949 was international representative of United Electrical Workers; LOUIS WEINSTOCK, one of the Communist Party functionaries recently indicted in New York; LOUIS FARR who went underground in the Communist Party using the name of ROBERTS in 1949; JOHN GYETVAI, presently Hungarian Minister to Turkey; ISADORE BLOOM, one of CP functionaries recently indicted in New York City; CHARLES MUSSEL who in 1949 was Secretary of the All-Slav Congress; and DOROTHY THARMAN, all were members of the Yorkville Unit of the Communist Party with LAUTNER when he joined the Party in 1929. DOROTHY THARMAN was first unit organizer.

In May of 1930 while he was still in attendance at the aforementioned school, LAUTNER was called in by OUS MAJER and told that a Party decision had been made and that he was to marry a girl who had come into the United States from Hungary on a student visa. The girl was described as promising material for the Communist Party. LAUTNER was told that he could get a divorce later. As a consequence LAUTNER married GOLDIE ROTH at City Hall, New York City in May, 1930. One witness to the ceremony was JOHN TOTH, a fellow student of LAUTNER at the aforementioned school and who later went to Dayton, Ohio as Communist Party organizer and who is presently believed to be out of the Party and employed in New York City as a headwaiter. Another witness was JOHANNA ROTH, who was Administrative Head of the IWO in NYC in 1930, a sister of GOLDIE ROTH.

LAUTNER states that sometime in 1933 when he was residing in Cleveland, he was served with divorce papers and so far as he knows he is divorced from GOLDIE ROTH. LAUTNER claims not to have lived with GOLDIE and in fact, not to have seen her but once since their marriage. On the single occasion that LAUTNER saw her, he did not speak to her and viewed her at a distance. LAUTNER states that he learned later that he was to have gone through such a marriage ceremony with the sister of LOUIS WEINSTOCK who had also come into the country on a student visa and that ALEXANDER VOROS had, in fact, married WEINSTOCK's sister under the same circumstances as LAUTNER had married ROTH.

In the spring of 1930 LAUTNER was elected delegate to a Section Convention of the Communist Party in Harlem, New York City. LAUTNER states at that time the Organizational Secretary of District #2, New York was JOHN WILLIAMSON.

In May of 1930 OUR MAJER assigned LAUTNER as District Secretary of the Hungarian Bureau of the Communist Party in Detroit. Detroit had a large Hungarian population numbering approximately twenty thousand and they resided, for the most part, in the automobile industrial areas. LAUTNER's assignment was to build up the influence of the CP among the Hungarians in Detroit and to infiltrate into Hungarian social, political, church and fraternal organizations. Generally, his job was to educate and organize into a closer membership the Hungarian members and to bring them into the activities of the CP in the District of Detroit.

LAUTNER stated that JACK STACHN L was the CP leader in Detroit and that PHIL BART was Organizational Secretary under STACHN L. LAUTNER stated that he was responsible to the District leaders at Detroit as well as the Hungarian Bureau of the CP at New York. While in Detroit he was Secretary of the District Control Commission of the Detroit District of the CP. LAUTNER stated that the Head of the National Control Commission of the CP in New York at that time was CHARLES BIRBA. At Detroit WILLIAM NOWELL was Educational Director and ELLA GORTZ was Trade Union Secretary in the district organization.

Also, while in Detroit, LAUTNER worked part-time at the Amtorg Trading Corporation Branch Office handling the switchboard.

LAUTNER describes TEACHEL as being one of a triumvirate who, with BROWDER and FOSTER, ruled the CP from 1928 to 1930.

While in Detroit LAUTNER was a CP lecturer and taught Marxism and Leninism, using his notes and material gathered from the aforementioned Hungarian school.

LAUTNER recalled that the Verhovy Aid Society of Detroit was one of the Hungarian organizations that he attempted to infiltrate. He stated that they were successful in converting many of the individuals to Communism and in fact, controlled one of the lodges. He also recalled that the Bridgeport Aid Society and the Reformers Church of Detroit were other organizations that he attempted to infiltrate with only moderate success. At Detroit he sat in as an invitee at the District Committee meetings and gave reports of his activities. LAUTNER stated that one of his biggest jobs was to build up CP influence among Hungarian auto workers in Detroit.

In the early spring of 1931 FRED BROWN, later known as FRED ABRINI, who was head of the Organizational Department of the National Committee of the CP in New York, came to Detroit and informed LAUTNER that he was assigned by the Hungarian Bureau to go to Canada to relieve the Editor of the Canadian paper (the Hungarian Worker) and to become the National Bureau Secretary of the Canadian Hungarian National Bureau of the Canadian Communist Party. LAUTNER relieved ALEXANDER YOROS.

LAUTNER went to New York and then went with GUS MAJER to Buffalo and through Niagara Falls into Canada. When he got to Hamilton, Ontario, he was introduced to the Canadian Communists by GUS MAJER. LAUTNER states that the American Communist Party had direct supervision over the Canadian Communist Party at that time. He states that the Canadians were not consulted in his appointment. LAUTNER states that he remained in Canada for approximately eleven months and during this period BETTY GANNETT was also there as the Communist Internationale Youth Representative in Canada.

In Canada LAUTNER used the alias of JOHN KOVACS. He did this at the suggestion of GUS MAJER and was told that it was the practice of the Party to do it and that if he used his correct name, he might have trouble with United States authorities on his return. LAUTNER states that MAJER gave him the name to use and introduced him to the Canadian Communists under the alias.

LAUTNER states that the Hungarian name of the paper was "Munkas" and that it was ostensibly a labor newspaper and that his articles and work in this paper were based upon material set out in the "Canadian Worker" and the "Daily Worker" of New York. LAUTNER stated that the Canadian Party leaders whom he consulted in connection with his duties were TIM BUCK, General Secretary of the Canadian CP and SAM CARR, Organizational Secretary of the Canadian CP. CARR was identified as having been convicted of espionage activities for the Soviet Union in Canada in 1949. LAUTNER states that he and SAM CARR organized a Hungarian YCL school in Toronto and that BETTY GANNETT taught at this school.

In the spring of 1932 LAUTNER asked the National Hungarian Bureau of the CP in New York to relieve him from his assignment and he was advised by GUS MAJER that he was to wind up his business and return to the United States. In speaking of his assignment in Canada LAUTNER stated that the Hungarian population which numbered from four to ten thousand, was spread over the following cities: Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Alberta, Vancouver and parts of Nova Scotia. The purpose of LAUTNER's mission was the same as in Detroit, namely, to spread Communist Party theory among the Hungarians and to get the Hungarians to work in the CP of the various districts in Canada. As a measure of his success, LAUTNER stated that TIM BUCK wanted him to go to the Lenin School and then to come back and become a Canadian and work with BUCK in Canada.

In the spring of 1932, on his return from New York, LAUTNER was assigned by GUS MAJER to Cleveland to become District Secretary of the Hungarian Bureau of the CP in Cleveland and to work as editor on one of the Hungarian papers there. LAUTNER was also given the job to report back to the National Hungarian Bureau of the CP concerning a factional dispute among the Hungarians in Cleveland. LAUTNER advised that while the National Hungarian Bureau was located in New York, its paper was published in Cleveland. Individual CP Hungarian members in Cleveland wanted the Bureau to make its headquarters in Cleveland. This position was disputed by the leading Hungarian functionaries in New York. LAUTNER stated that the situation was finally resolved by BROVIER who removed from the Hungarian Bureau most of the disputants including GUS MAJER.

At Cleveland a national training school was organized for Hungarian Communists from all over the United States. One branch was in New York City and one in Cleveland. LAUTNER formed the branch in Cleveland in the summer of 1932 and the school lasted for eight weeks. LAUTNER was director of the school, oversaw its operations and evaluated the people in attendance. LAUTNER's work in this regard was at the instruction of GUS MAJER. LAUTNER asked for a release from Cleveland, expressing his dislike over functional fights among the Hungarian CP members in Cleveland, and he left Cleveland in the summer of 1932.

He was transferred from Cleveland to the New York City Party and later was assigned to the Language Bureau of the New York District. LAUTNER stated that when he first returned from Cleveland he worked with his father who at that time was residing with the rest of the family in Ridgewood, New Jersey. LAUTNER's assignment to the Language Bureau of the New York District of the CP was made by MAX T. BUCHRO, at that time Organizational Secretary of the CP, District #2.

LAUTNER describes his activities at this period as being a trouble shooter among foreign groups in New York, especially among the German population who were aroused over BUCHRO's handling of the Communists. LAUTNER also worked among the Latin American groups. He states that the dominating group in the CP were the Cubans and that this time also marked the beginning of a period wherein the Puerto Ricans challenged the domination of the Cubans in the CP Latin American affairs. In speaking of this period LAUTNER stated that the New York CP aided in a financial way the Cuban and Puerto Rican CP's and sent individuals known as SANCHEZ and MANSINER for colonial purposes to Puerto Rico and Venezuela.

LAUTNER also stated that during this period there was a general assessment on all of the Party members in the United States to aid Communist Parties in other countries. He stated that in the early 1930's when they were on a weekly dues paying system, they had a monthly assessment of Internationale dues equal to a week's dues. LAUTNER states that in the middle 1930's, when the Party went on a monthly dues paying system, they also had a quarterly assessment of Internationale dues equal to a month's dues and that this continued until the Communist Party formally disaffiliated with the Communist Internationale in 1941. LAUTNER states that the assessment was known as the Internationale assessment and that it was generally understood in the Party that this money was in fulfillment of the Internationale obligations of the Party and was spent at the discretion of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, USA.

In the latter part of 1933 or the early part of 1934, LAUTNER was appointed by MAX STEINBERG as a full-time Section Organizer to a new section of the Party known as Section 18. This section of the Party was located on the west side of New York City with territorial boundaries from 59th to 110th Street, from Central Park West to the Hudson River. LAUTNER relates that after his appointment by STEINBERG he called a meeting of West Side Communists and informed them that he was Section Organizer by orders of the District Committee of the CP. As Section Organizer LAUTNER had contact with CHARLES KROVETZ, District Organizer of the CP and member of the National Committee; ISRAEL L. LITVIN; ALAN FETTERMAN; ROSE MORTIS; ROBERT WINCH; ROY HUDSON and EARL BROWER, all members of the National Committee of the Communist Party.

LAUTNER states that Section 18 was made up, for the most part, of professional and middle-class Jewish people and that in this period new members classes were held and the classes were addressed by J. PETERS who at that time was working out of a speakers bureau of the CP, and also by VICTOR J. JONES, one of the editors of "The Communist".

During this period and in the fall of 1935 a friend of LAUTNER by the name of ALLEN came back from the Lenin School in Moscow. Both LAUTNER and KLEIN visited AL LANNON who at that time resided in Brooklyn, New York. They went to Jacob Reiss Park in Brooklyn and LAUTNER states that KLEIN and LANNON talked about their experiences in the Lenin School in Moscow. LAUTNER could recall little of the conversation but states that both KLEIN and LANNON spoke of an excellent teacher at the Lenin School, a Hungarian by the name of RUDAS. LAUTNER describes LANNON as being a close confidant of ROY HUDSON, specializing in seamen and maritime union problems. LAUTNER had little contact with LANNON, but noted that he saw LANNON at the 1945 National Convention of the CP where LANNON attended as head of the Maryland delegation of the CP.

In this period LAUTNER states that various members of the National Committee of the Communist Party came to the Section Organizers meetings that he attended and he also recalled that EDUARDO LILIER who at that time was known under the name of EDWARDS, also attended these meetings. LAUTNER stated that LILIER was not a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party nor a Section Organizer of the CP, but was definitely in attendance at the meetings. LAUTNER states that the general opinion among the members was that LILIER was a representative of the Communist Internationale to the United States.

LAUTNER recalled that in the spring of 1935 at a meeting held on Second Avenue in New York City, which meeting was dedicated to the problems concerning the Transport Workers Union, he saw LILIER in attendance and recalled that LILIER took issue with JOHN SANTO who was the CP functionary in charge of concentration work among the transport workers in NYC. He recalled that the meeting was held at Stuyvesant Hall and that the meeting was called at the instance of either CHARLES ARNSHEIM or MAX STINEBORE. He recalled that LILIER's exception to the report of SANTO was very unusual inasmuch as LILIER had no formal position in the Party and that in any case, the report of such a functionary as SANTO was generally accepted without much discussion. LAUTNER stated that LILIER spoke with apparent authority and that no one at the meeting took issue with him.

LAUTNER also recalled that shortly after this meeting, in the spring of 1935, he saw LILIER at a Section Organizers meeting also attended by District CP leaders, held at 11th Street, New York City. The purpose of this meeting was a circulation campaign concerning the "Daily Worker". At this meeting LILIER, known under the name of EDWARDS, addressed the meeting and stated that the "Daily Worker" must reflect the activities of the Communist Party and the problems of the working class in the most vivid and lively fashion so that the "Daily Worker" would become the accepted voice of the American working class.

LAUTNER also recalled that in the summer of 1935 he met LILIER at a meeting of the Section Organizers, New York State District leaders, etc., held at Camp Unity, New York, which is located approximately 100 miles outside of NYC. This meeting was called to hear a report by J. PETERS on Methods and Devices of Concentration in the National Guard. About this time, MAX STAINBERG who directed LAUTNER to attend the meeting, identified EDWARDS as the Communist Internationale representative. The last time that LAUTNER can recall BIELER was when he saw him in 1949 shortly after he was released from Ellis Island. At this time LAUTNER saw BIELER in the CP Headquarters, 35 West 12th Street, NYC. On this occasion he knew BIELER under his true name and recalled that BIELER attended and spoke at a banquet in honor of the eleven National Leaders of the CP in NY.

In 1936 LAUTNER was sent by JACK SWACHEL who at that time was Executive Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, to West Virginia to be District Organizer. LAUTNER's appointment was at the direction of the National Committee of the CP. LAUTNER notes that he had been previously approached by FRED BROFF, alias Fred Marini, to go to Norfolk as District Organizer there. On his appointment to West Virginia, LAUTNER was given various addresses in Fairmount and Charlestown, but decided to make his headquarters in Charlestown. He was given specific instructions to build a Communist Party around the mining and chemical workers in West Virginia.

Shortly after his arrival he called his first conference, introduced himself and became the District Organizer without the pretense of any formality of election. He served in this capacity from the spring of 1936 until the end of 1940. LAUTNER notes that one of his instructions before going to West Virginia was to build up CP membership in the I.W.

LAUTNER states that he had met CHARLOTTE MALAMED in New York City in 1933 and that at that time she was a functionary of the Freiheit in NYC. LAUTNER stated that he lived with CHARLOTTE in NYC and that on his assignment to West Virginia, she was also assigned to that territory by JACK SWACHEL in the position of Organizational Secretary. LAUTNER stated that in West Virginia he continued to live with CHARLOTTE until 1940 when CHARLOTTE who was not a citizen of the United States, but was apprehensive of the possibilities of being deported because of her CP activities, asked LAUTNER to go through a marriage ceremony with her in order to expedite her obtaining of U.S. citizenship. LAUTNER states that on the way up to New York City in 1940 to attend the National Convention of the CP, he and CHARLOTTE applied for a marriage license in Maryland and then continued up to the convention. After the convention he and CHARLOTTE, together with ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and SAM BROWN, the latter being a CP member and Executive Secretary of the New York County Section of the CP, returned to Elkton, Maryland, where LAUTNER and CHARLOTTE were married. The witnesses to the ceremony were ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and SAM BROWN. FLYNN at that time was a member of the National Committee of the CP. LAUTNER advised that FLYNN opposed his marriage to CHARLOTTE on the grounds that it was not necessary. LAUTNER stated that he advised FLYNN of the real purpose of the marriage and that FLYNN thereafter did not oppose his marriage.

After the marriage they both returned to New York and CHARLOTTE went to Chicago and LAUTNER went back to West Virginia. LAUTNER states that he never lived with CHARLOTTE again from that time on although he always considered her a good friend. He recalled that CHARLOTTE's assignment was as a functionary of the IWO and that she applied for and received U.S. citizenship in Chicago.

Shortly after this marriage in July or August, 1940, at Elkton, Maryland, LAUTNER, in the early part of 1941 went to [redacted] who was the Communist Party attorney in New York and told him that he desired to marry [redacted] who also was a CP member. LAUTNER states that he told [redacted] of his marriage to CHARLOTTE and that [redacted] told LAUTNER that he could get an annulment, on the grounds that CHARLOTTE violated a pre-nuptial contract whereby she had agreed to become a member of the Catholic faith and that such grounds would be valid in New York for an annulment. LAUTNER states that [redacted] was the one who definitely suggested the fraudulent grounds and that in pursuance thereto LAUTNER did secure an annulment in the Supreme Court of New York County and at a hearing before the judge, he deliberately lied under oath and testified to the false contract grounds as given him by [redacted]. LAUTNER states that CHARLOTTE was agreeable to the arrangement and put in an appearance through an attorney but otherwise did not contest the action. LAUTNER was of the opinion that the annulment was secured in September, 1941 in the Supreme Court of New York County.

Before LAUTNER arrived in West Virginia and while still in New York, he was given a code by J. PETERS whom LAUTNER described as a member of the National Organizational Department of the Communist Party, USA. The code consisted of an arrangement whereby PETERS gave LAUTNER a copy of a book, a similar copy of which was retained by PETERS. PETERS instructed LAUTNER in the use of a series of numbers, the first of which referred to the page of the book, the second to a line on the page and the third to spaces over on that line. At this point a word would begin and that letter would be the first letter in the construction of the word. Similarly, the second letter would be arrived at by referring to a number of a line and numbers of spaces on the line. This was repeated until an entire word was coded and the message was completed. PETERS instructed LAUTNER to use the code for confidential or secret communications with the National Headquarters of the CP but LAUTNER states that he had no use for the code and no need to communicate secretly with the leadership in New York inasmuch as he made frequent trips to NYC and on those occasions discussed his confidential matters with the leadership. LAUTNER states that PETERS told him that the other CP District leaders also had such codes.

From 1936 to 1942 LAUTNER states that he attended many plenums of the CP, USA held at NYC in conjunction with the various conventions of the Party. He stated that the plenums consisted of a joint meeting of the National Committee of the CP and various District Organizers. He stated that the plenums usually were held in the spring and the fall of each year. LAUTNER recalled PHIL FRANKFELD as being in attendance at these plenums as District Organizer from Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. He also recalls [redacted] and ALBERT BLUMBERG as being in attendance as District Organizers from Maryland.

As District Organizer in West Virginia he was given a subsidy of $50.00 a month, a car, office supplies and literature by the National CP. He distributed among the Party members in West Virginia copies of the following literature:

- Foundations of Leninism
- Problems of Leninism
- United Front by DIMITROFF
- Leftwing Communism
- Imperialism
- Strategy and Tactics
- State and Revolution.

LAUTNER recalled that during his stay in West Virginia the subject of the Hitler-Stalin Pact came up. This pact in the light of the united front program as announced by BIMITHOFF was explained as a tactical maneuver on the part of the Soviet Union and not part of the Communist long range strategy.

As a result of his work in West Virginia he was given a favorable evaluation by JAMES FORD, member of the National Committee of the CP, USA and recommended and later elected as a member of the Presiding Committee of the 1940 National Convention of the CP. He stated that the fact of this election was published in the "Daily Worker" in the issue of May 31, 1940. LAUTNER stated that the Presiding Committee was made up of BROWDER, FOSTER and ROY HUDSON. LAUTNER recalled BROWDER coming into the Committee meeting and presenting to the Committee the slate of the new National Committee, which slate was endorsed without question by all members.

Also, as a result of his work in West Virginia, he was notified by ROY HUDSON, who at that time was Organizational Secretary of the CP and performing the duties of EARL BROWDER, who at that time was in jail, that he was to attend a National Training School of the Communist Party from January or February to May, 1941. LAUTNER described this training school as being the highest training school of the CP and the successor to the Lenin School in Moscow. LAUTNER stated that because of the war, the Hitler-Stalin Pact and the general political situation, the Party had ceased to send students to the Lenin School at Moscow and had started a CP Training School in New York City known as the National Training School. LAUTNER attended the second session of the school. The school lasted about three and a half months and the students worked approximately sixteen hours a day. There were full-time morning, afternoon and evening sessions. LAUTNER recalled the following students in attendance:

ANDREW ONDI, CP District Organizer of Cleveland, Ohio; DAVID McLELLAN WHITE, leader of the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and son of former Governor
WHITE of Ohio;

[redacted] from New Orleans and [redacted]
[redacted] of Richmond, Virginia; [redacted] of the Chicago District;
[redacted] in St. Louis, Missouri.

LAUTNER recalled the following instructors:

GEORGE WICKIND, member of the National Training School Commission who lectured on Marxism-Leninism. His source material was the Selected and Collective Works of LENIN, Imperialism, STALIN's Foundations of Leninism and STALIN's Problems of Leninism.

"POP" WISDEL, Director of the National Training School who lectured on Political Economy and whose source material was Das Kapital.

SAM CARR, Executive Secretary of the CP of Canada who lectured on The History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. CARR used the textbook, History of CP, SU (U). CARR also used various references to the works of LENIN.

[redacted], whose topic was Trade Unions and the CP. [redacted] remarks dealt with the History and Development of Trade Unions; CP Influence in Trade Unions; CP Concentration in Industries and generally, the experience of [redacted] a leading CP trade functionary.

JAMES FORD, member of the National Committee of CP who spoke on the Negro Question. FORD's remarks dealt with the CP policy of self determination among the Negroes, the problems of building the CP in the Negro populations of the United States. FORD characterized the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as a reformist movement representing the bourgeoisie. FORD approved the National Negro Congress in its competition with the NAACP.

AVRO LANDY. LANDY spoke on LENIN's Imperialism. His talk dealt with the final stages of monopoly capitalism and the colonial aspects of monopoly capitalism and applied those doctrines to the United States which was characterized as an imperialist monopolistic nation.

FRANCIS FRANKLIN gave a history of the American labor movement. FRANKLIN in developing the history of this movement, characterized it as not representing progressivism. He stated that the American labor movement was economic conscious but not social conscious.

JOHN WILLIAMSON, member of the National Board and National Committee of the CP, who spoke on the practical problems of the CP. WILLIAMSON's remarks dealt mainly with the building of the Party in concentration districts. It was WILLIAMSON's theory that in every section of the country there was one or more key or influential unions or industries, but many local unions or sub-divisions of industry. WILLIAMSON claimed that if the Party could gain control of the key union or key industry, the rest of the locals and sub-divisions of industry would follow and that CP influence would be overwhelming. WILLIAMSON therefore urged that the Party be built and that the efforts be concentrated in the important segments of the unions and industry in each section of the country.

LAUTNER recalled that RUDY BAKER, former CP representative to Canada and at that time in an illegal or underground capacity, lectured to the school on the topic of China. BAKER identified the Chinese Communists as being true Marxists and generally followed the CP line in his criticism of the Nationalists under Chiang Kai-shek.

LAUTNER also recalled that a young scientist whose first name was JOHN, but whose last name remains unknown, from Columbia University, who was at that time engaged in atomic research at the General Electric Laboratory in Schenectady, New York, spoke to the class on the topic of general science. In his talk, this individual spoke of DARWIN's evolution, EINSTEIN's Relativity, Materialistic Conception of the Beginnings of Creation, and a general course on science. LAUTNER recalled that the remarks of the scientist concerned Dialectical Materialism as applied to nature rather than to society.

At the conclusion of this National School LAUTNER was assigned by the National Committee of the CP as National Secretary of the Hungarian Bureau, which position he retained until November, 1942. About this same period he was appointed as a member of the National Language Department or Commission of the CP and later, in the spring of 1942 he was appointed National Secretary of the Hungarian Section of IWO. The latter appointment was by the National Committee of the CP. He was informed of the latter appointment by ARTHUR SANDY, Head of the National Language Department or Commission of the CP. LAUTNER retained these aforementioned positions until inducted into the United States Army in November, 1942. LAMINER was inducted at New York City on November 9, 1942.

LAMINER's armed service records, maintained at AGO, St. Louis, Missouri, reflect that he has Army Serial Number 32622865. It is noted that his civilian occupation is given as "Executive Secretary for insurance organization". His military occupation is given as "Translator". His foreign service is given as "2 years, 10 days". His campaigns are given as "Naples and Foggia". His discharge is dated June 20, 1945 at Fort Dix, New Jersey. His highest rank held was Technician, Fourth Grade. While in the Army LAMINER relates he received personal letters from ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, but otherwise was out of touch with CP activities.

In relating his activities in the United States Army, LAUTNER advised that in the summer of 1943, he was assigned to the Psychological Warfare Branch of the United States Army at Bari and Rome, Italy, as well as Algiers. He recalled that at Algiers, his job was to establish a monitoring system of checking on Hungarian and Czechoslovakian broadcasts. He would intercept the broadcast, translate it and put it in report form. Later at Bari, he performed the same duties. He recalled that at Bari, he was approached by the British Branch of the Psychological Warfare and worked with them with the permission of the United States Army. He also worked on a broadcast to Hungary, which broadcast carried allied propaganda, factual news, editorials, etc. He recalled that he helped to prepare thousands of leaflets which were supplied to the Allied Air Force who would drop the leaflets into Hungary and Czechoslovakia. The leaflets were called "Allied Air Force News". While performing these general duties at Bari, LAUTNER recalled that he met ALEXANDER CSERESNYIES who was assigned to the British Monitoring System at Algiers and who was formerly Spanish Civil War veteran who had been picked up by the British and placed in the British Army. LAUTNER stated that CSERESNYIES knew of LAUTNER's Communist Party affiliations and that they worked together in their monitoring duties. In Bari, LAUTNER stated that there were many Yugoslav partisans who were trained and sent back to Yugoslavia as part of the Liberation Army. It was one of LAUTNER's duties to develop among this group, a news service. That is, a group that could be relied upon when they returned to Yugoslavia to report Allied news and in turn report back to the Allies, activities in Yugoslavia. As will be stated later in this memorandum, it was LAUTNER's association with CSERESNYIES that supplied a basis of suspicion on the part of the Communist Party, USA of LAUTNER himself.

After his discharge from the United States Army, LAUTNER went up to the Communist Party Office in New York and he recalled they were making preparations in relation to a State Convention of the Party. LAUTNER stated that he spoke to JOHN WILLIAMSON who at that time was secretary of the National Committee of the Communist Political Association. WILLIAMSON told LAUTNER that he would see him in a few days. Later he met WILLIAMSON again and on this occasion, JACK BAUMANN and BENNY BLUMIS were present. BLUMIS asked LAUTNER to go to Cleveland, Ohio as City Organizer for Cuyahoga County. LAUTNER stated that he turned this offer down and gave as his reason the fact that he was out of New York City for such a long period of time, & that he would like to stay in New York City and settle down there. LAUTNER stated that BLUMIS did not insist on LAUTNER taking the job and in fact asked him for his preference in respect to work in the Party. LAUTNER stated that he told BLUMIS and the others that he desired to return to Hungarian work under the "National Hungarian Bureau of the Communist Party". LAUTNER was told to get in touch with AVRO LANDY and when he did, he received an offer and accepted the job as Secretary of the Hungarian Bureau. LAUTNER also recalled that he was assigned to the Hungarian - American Democratic Council which he described as the Communist Party front organization whose purpose was to counteract the influence that the Hungarian Federation had at that time. LAUTNER identified the Federation as being anti-Communist. He remained in these positions until the end of 1945. He recalled that at about the time that he was seeing WILLIAMSON, DENNIS and STROUD, the State and National Conventions of the Communist Political Association were being held. He recalled that ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, and JOHN WILLIAMSON told him of the draft resolution that had been prepared by the National Committee of the Communist Political Association, of the DUGLO letter and the FOSTER letter. They told him to attend both the State and National Conventions. LAUTNER recalled that he did attend the State Convention of the Communist Political Association in New York and that he sat on the stage with GILBERT GREEN who at that time was State Chairman of the Communist Political Association. LAUTNER stated that at this State Convention, Party leaders agreed with the draft resolution and condemned the actions of BRODER. He recalls that the convention was held at the Manhattan Center, 34th Street and 8th Avenue, New York City, and that present at the convention were GILBERT GREEN, State Chairman, WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, ROBERT MINOR, ROY HUDSON, CHARLES BRONSTEIN, BENJAMIN DAVID, all of whom were members of the National Committee of the Communist Political Association. LAUTNER stated that the line taken by the people present at the State Convention followed the pre-convention discussion articles set out in the "Daily Worker" issues of June and July, 1945. LAUTNER also recalled that at the State Convention delegates were elected to the National Convention and that the State Convention stood adjourned subject to a recall after the holding of the National Convention. LAUTNER also recalled that WILLIAM DAVID, who acted as Chairman of the Convention, gave the principal address and that his address was reported in the "Daily Worker", as well as the resolution adopted by the State Convention.

After the State Convention, LAUTNER visited his family in Youngstown, Ohio for a period of approximately ten days and then came back to New York and attended the National Convention. He was given tickets for the National Convention by JOHN WILLIAMSON and was present as a "retained delegate". At the National Convention, he saw all the principal leaders of the National Communist Political Association, including WILLIAMSON, FLYNN, FOSTER, MINOR, HUDSON, BRONSTEIN, DAVID, and BRODER. He stated that the National Convention was completely in the control of the Communist Political Association and LEBERMAN acted as Chairman. The main talks were given by FORBES and LEBERMAN and the main discussion dealt with the POLLOCK article, the FORBES letter and the draft resolution. At this convention LEBERMAN was assigned to the Veterans Committee which was headed by FORBES LEBERMAN. The line discussed at these committee meetings was the endeavor of the Communist Party to penetrate into the American Legion. LEBERMAN stated that as well as DAVE CRUM and ALVIN KANE, the latter who was Party leader from St. Louis, Missouri, disagreed with this line and tried to urge a formation by the Communist Party of their own veteran organization.

At the National Convention, in addition to the dissolution of the Communist Political Association and the formation of the Communist Party, LEBERMAN can recall that there was much self criticism by the leaders who took the position that they had blindly followed LEBERMAN in his policies and considered themselves as being part of an organization that had deserted Russian-Leninism. LEBERMAN can state that the final resolution of the Convention condemned POLLOCK's revisionism. LEBERMAN can identify the speaker of the National Address given at the convention as reported in the "Political Affairs" issues of July, August and September, 1945. LEBERMAN recalled that he did not attend the second session of the State Convention held after the holding of the National Convention, but did recall that the State Communist Political Association had been instructed to have one State Convention made up of two sessions, one session to be held before the National Convention and one session to be held after the National Convention. The purpose of the latter session being to reconstitute the Communist Party and carry out the mandate of the National Convention.

In 1945, while with the Manhattan Bureau, he had a talk with AL KANE, who at that time was a member of the Secretariat of the New York State Communist Party and he was assigned to build up among the building trades, an industrial section of the Communist Party. This assignment was given at either the latter part of 1945 or the early part of 1946, and LEBERMAN organized out of the Communist Political Association membership all of the building trades, Unionists who had been absorbed in clubs, etc. into Industrial Branches.

In the early part of 1947, LEBERMAN was assigned as Section Organizer to a Section of New York in the lower west side of Manhattan known as Chelsea. LEBERMAN explained that in 1947, the Party had reorganized Manhattan into regions and one of the regions known as Region #1 was also known as Chelsea. Later in 1947, LEBERMAN consulted with WILLIAM WATTS at that time Executive Secretary of the State Communist Party and ROBERT KATZMAN was assigned as a full time functionary to the New York State Review Commission of the Communist Party. LEBERMAN states that the Review Commission was a successor to the old Control Commission and it was principally a body of people who reviewed disciplinary cases that were presented in the lower echelons of the Party. In this period, the main effort was in the direction of the splinter group to ferret out the various Browderites who were attacking the leadership of the Party and also those groups who were attacking the leadership of the Party as being Pro-Browder.

During this period, 1945 to 1947, LUTHER stated that as an aftermath of the reconstitution of the Communist Party, emphasis was placed on Marxist - Leninist education. He recalled that the speeches of the leaders of the Party at the National Convention emphasized this need. He recalled that the State Organization of the Communist Party stressed its reaction to the need of Marxist education in an article by WILLIAM WILKINSON in "Political Affairs". LUTHER also recalled that HARRY GARRETT, member of the National Committee, wrote a pamphlet also expressing this need and the title of the pamphlet was "The Communist Party and You". LUTHER recalled that National outlines of education were prepared by the National Educational Commission of the Communist Party and were disseminated into the various districts throughout the country. He recalled that there was much emphasis placed upon the study of the History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (Gorbachev). LUTHER also recalled that a definite chain of educational classes were organized on State, County, Section and Club levels.

LUTHER also recalled that during the period 1945 to 1947, the Concentration Program of the Communist Party which began with the report of WILLIAM WILKINSON at the National Convention, was reported on by JOHN DORRIS in an article in "Political Affairs" in 1947. This article showed in some detail how the concentration policy was carried out in New York State. LUTHER stated that in the early part of 1947, he had been assigned by JOHN WILKINSON, who at that time was the Secretary of the National Communist Party, and who headed up the concentration work of the Party, to a committee headed by DORRIS, the purpose of which was to work on a concentration policy for the New York State organization. The report of LUTHER was a result of the work of this committee. LUTHER recalled that New York usually took the initiative of following out Party policy and therefore the strategy plan, which was published in "Political Affairs" gave to that plan and policy, national recognition.

During the period of the Cominform, LUTHER stated that J. Edgar Hoover's Manual of Organization, published in 1946 was used by him in the 1930's. He recalled that at that time, the Communist Party was part of the Communist International and was subject to the discipline and orders of the Communist International. After the formal dissolution of the Communist International, in 1943, which LAURIE stated was described by FOLK as a matter of expediency, the control heretofore exercised by the Communist International was exercised by such individuals as GILBERT and the direction in the official organs of the Communist Party, "People's Voice" which were distributed to the Party officials, the publication of the report of the Zim report, the discipline exerted by the European Communist Party, and actions over the Communist Party, etc., as illustrated by the fact of article on the GIL incident.

WINTER stated that after the 1944 National Convention of the Party held in New York, he was made a member of the National Review Commission of the Communist Party. At the same time, he remained a member of the State Review Commission. He recalled that JULE WINTER and GUY WILLIAMS were made known to the State Review Commission and placed on the National Review Commission by WILLIAM WINTER, JR., a member of the National Review Commission. He received his instructions in 1944 from JAC. WINTER. This commission worked under the supervision of the National Committee of the Communist Party and concerned itself with disciplinary problems. Members of the National Review Commission were assigned to discuss with the heads of the various State Review Commissions, their various problems in regard to the following various matters:

1. The program of the Government, revolutionizing the opportunities given to Communist Party members on a district level.
2. What action the National Council for Action could take to increase the role of the vigilance in the Communist Party.

Members of the National Review Commission would advise the people how to get up at 7:00 AM every day. In many cases the organization took complete control in their activities. In those instances, members of the National Review Commission would go into the state and hear the facts as they were, but did not get too involved so as to produce their ending the same matter as it would have been left to the national commission. It was like the following individual is being members of the National Review Commission who are: The Chairman was ALVIN K. BROWN, JR., and the vice chairman was JAMES H. CANNON, JR., and the secretary was ROBERT L. BROWN.

LAUTNER could recall that the cases of appeal by MAX BRADOME of New Jersey and JOHN KENNY of Connecticut were instances where the National Review Commission reviewed the findings of the State Review Commissions. LAUTNER remained as a member of the National Review Commission up to the time of his expulsion from the Communist Party.

LAUTNER recalled while the case was pending against the Party leaders in New York, BOB THOMPSON and an incident in his neighborhood where a woman person was supposed to have attacked him when he got out of his car near his home. The same morning that this incident was published in the papers, LEO BROWN, who was Labor Secretary of the New York State organization and also a member of the New York Secretariat, came to LAUTNER and directed him to go to BOB THOMPSON's home at Long Island and inform him that this situation must become real serious and that proper Party doctors should be contacted immediately and that THOMPSON must go to a hospital where X-ray tests, etc., would be made and that he must stay in bed for two to three weeks. BROWN explained that this must be done in order to get a favorable decision in delaying the trial of the Communist Party leaders in New York. The reason why LAUTNER was approached by BROWN with this undertaking was because of LAUTNER's position on the State Review Commission and that the matter was considered of a confidential nature involving a disciplinary action in relation to THOMPSON. LAUTNER, in speaking of the Party's control over the attendance at Party meetings and conventions in the period around 1943, advised that he was in charge of security in the 1943 National and State Conventions of the Communist Party. He described that at these conventions, there was a master list of all delegates and on the basis of the list, there was a number attached to each name. Three different colors of delegate cards were used to indicate the type of delegate and that the cards carried the identical number that appeared on the master list. These lists were prepared for every session with numbers but no names and checkers indicated next to the numbers the various cards that were presented at each session. In that way, the Party knew what members had attended and what members did not attend any given session. If any person went out of a session for a short time, this fact was also noted on the list. The list was turned in to the National Organization Department of the Party.

LAUTNER recalls that in the summer of 1943, he was ordered by the New York Secretariat, under the leadership of BOB THOMPSON to start working on plans for the Party to go underground. He recalled that THOMPSON, WILLIAM BROWN, LEO BROWN and himself met in a series of meetings in the summer and fall of 1943 and the beginning of 1949 and set up an organizational structure for underground operations. LAUTNER remembered that BOB THOMPSON at the first meetings in 1948 explained a structure for underground operation that THOMPSON stated he had derived from WILLIAM Z. FOSTER and which FOSTER had brought back from a European tour which he had taken in 1947 and early 1948. THOMPSON told LAUTNER that FOSTER, while in Europe, had been in consultation with European Party leaders concerning the question of the Party in the United States going underground and that, based on the experience of the European Parties with underground work, the system of threes was most suitable. LAUTNER advised that the system of threes had two aspects. There was a vertical structure which on the top consisted of three of the State Leaders, namely the political leader of the State organization, the organizational leader of the State organization and the labor organizer or Trade Union leader of the State Organization. The State was divided into three areas. Each of the three State leaders selected a member for each of the area leaderships. The member selected for each area was known only to the State leader who selected him. Below the three areas were the counties. Each of the area leaders selected one county leader and the county leader was known only to the area leader. This continued from counties to regions, from regions to sections, from sections to sub-sections and from sub-sections to units.

In 1949, the plans were communicated for the first time to the county leadership of the Party and steps were taken to put the plans into operation. When LAUTNER left the Party in 1950, the Party at that time was testing the seventh level of the underground operation. In addition to the vertical structure there was a horizontal structure which was actually an additional arm for the upper levels in the vertical structure of the Communist Party. The horizontal structure carried out the same duties as the various commissions and counties of the legal structure of the Party. The functions, however, were carried out on a reduced scale by individuals trusted by the leadership for their technical and political development. In this horizontal level, there was set up a reserve leadership which could replace any functionary of the State leadership who could not act. Also in this horizontal level individuals were chosen to keep large sums of money for underground activity. Also in this horizontal structure were maintained individuals who made up the communication apparatus of the Party, that is, mail drops, messenger runs, etc. Also in this horizontal structure were maintained those individuals whose duty it was to conceal Party leaders and also individuals whose duty it was to set up leaflet and propaganda apparatus.

LAUTNER recalled that up to the time of his expulsion in 1950, the Party had had mimeograph machines and furnished some to the underground apparatus of the Communist Party.

He recalled that in 1949, there was a National Committee Plenary Session when people came in from Chicago, California and other places, and he gave a demonstration to them of the efficiency of the mimeograph machines. He also, at the direction of JACK KLING, gave to these individuals, sample machines and these individuals were told to reproduce the same machine for their own use back in their districts. In connection with the gelatin kits used in Baltimore, LAUTNER knows that in 1939 and 1940, these kits were suggested by J. PIERCE for use by LAUTNER in West Virginia.

In regard to his expulsion from the Communist Party, LAUTNER stated that in early December, 1949, he was asked by LOUIS WEINSTOCK if he desired to go to Hungary. He told WEINSTOCK that he had no money for such a trip, but WEINSTOCK replied that they could raise money for the trip and that once he got into Hungary, he would be the guest of the Hungarian Government. He told LAUTNER that he could get an invitation from the Trade Unions in Hungary just as WEINSTOCK did on his last trip to Hungary. LAUTNER agreed and he was instructed to get a passport. LAUTNER immediately applied for a passport at the Radio City Office of the State Department. At this same time, he was released by BOB THOMPSON from his duties in the State office of the Communist Party. During the first week of January, 1950, LAUTNER was informed by the State Department that no passports were being issued to Hungary because of the democratic strain between the United States and Hungary. LAUTNER so informed WEINSTOCK.

A few days later, JACK KLING, National Treasurer of the Communist Party, went to the State leadership of the Communist Party and asked for LAUTNER's temporary release to work with the National Committee for preparation of going underground. WILLIAM NORMAN and HAL SIMON of the State Secretariat agreed to release LAUTNER to the National Office.

On January 11, 1950, KLING came to LAUTNER and told him that he should leave for Cleveland on the night of January 13 and meet KLING at the Union Station in Cleveland on January 14, 1950 at 1:00 p.m. KLING was to put LAUTNER in contact with the person who was in charge of underground preparations in the Middle West.

On January 13, 1950, LAUTNER left for Cleveland, arriving there on the morning of January 14 and registered at the Hotel Cleveland. Later at 1:00 p.m., he met JACK KLING. Later that day, he and KLING went to a house in the industrial part of Cleveland known as Kingsbury Run. When they went into the house, KLING told LAUTNER to go to the cellar where LAUTNER stated he was confronted with two strangers. These individuals ordered LAUTNER to undress. They had what appeared to be rubber hoses in their hands and in a short time KLING, JOSEPH BRANDT, Ohio leader of the Party and [redacted] Detroit Communist Party leader, came down into the cellar. He was accused by these individuals of having conspired with ALEXANDER CSERESNYES and RAJK to introduce into Yugoslavia, Titoists. LAUTNER recalled that JOSEPH BRANDT had in his hand, a copy of the trial proceedings of the RAJK trial in Hungary wherein ALEXANDER CSERESNYES identifies an individual who clearly answers the description of LAUTNER as having been the individual who had trained and moved into Yugoslavia from Bari, Titoists. LAUTNER was accused of spying for the United States Central Intelligence Agency. LAUTNER also stated that he was asked questions concerning NOEL and HERMAN FIELD. LAUTNER advised that he denied all of the accusations and pleaded complete innocence. He stated that the more he protested his innocence, the more vigorous his accusers became. LAUTNER stated that his life was threatened. LAUTNER stated that he was struck by these individuals and that a gun was held against his head. He stated that although it was damp and cold, he was left standing completely naked while the interrogation went on. At one point, KLING asked LAUTNER who knew that LAUTNER was in Cleveland. LAUTNER told KLING, untruthfully, that he had told the hotel clerk that KLING was with him. After these individuals seemed to confer, KLING made LAUTNER sign a statement that LAUTNER had had a fair hearing. LAUTNER stated that he was in this place and in that condition from approximately 7:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. KLING informed LAUTNER that he was to appear at a cafeteria on Euclid Avenue, across from the May Company on the following morning at 11:00 a.m. When LAUTNER kept the appointment, no one showed up so he thereupon left Cleveland and went to Youngstown, Ohio to visit his family. When he returned to New York on the following Monday which was January 16, 1950, he read in the "Daily Worker" that he had been expelled from the Party on the grounds that he had covered up and prevented the expulsion of ANGELA CALOMIRIS who had appeared for the Government as a prosecution witness. LAUTNER explained that the charge was apparently based on the fact that while a member of the State Review Commission, LAUTNER had received a complaint to the effect that CALOMIRIS, a Communist Party leader, had been seen in the company of sexual perverts and was, therefore, considered unworthy of Communist Party leadership. LAUTNER stated that he first went to [redacted] with whom he resided in New York City and acquainted her with the incident in Cleveland and his innocence in regard to the alleged grounds for expulsion. LAUTNER's wife went to ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG and was told that if she stayed with LAUTNER, she, herself, would be expelled from the Party. LAUTNER, at the insistence of his wife, wrote to TRACHTENBERG and asked for a fair hearing and in his letter, he denied all the charges made against him. As time went on, his wife finally told LAUTNER that she could no longer live with him in view of the disgrace he had brought on her and their child by reason of his alleged misconduct in the Party. In other words, as LAUTNER has stated, his wife finally came to believe what the Party had accused him of and ordered him from their home. LAUTNER stated that he had married his wife in Jersey City, New Jersey, on September 5, 1941 and had one child, a girl, through this marriage. LAUTNER also advised that his wife secured a decree of divorce in Reno, Nevada in August, 1950.

In relation to his criminal record, LAUTNER stated that he was arrested in Flint, Michigan in July, 1930 where he was covering a Hungarian Communist meeting at Akron, Ohio with a man by the name of HORVATH, on the charge of vagrancy. He said that they were held for three or four days without any formal charges made against them and later were taken forcibly out of Flint, Michigan. LAUTNER also recalled that in 1923 at El Paso, Texas, he was delayed by Immigration while they checked his citizenship status. LAUTNER explained that he was returning from a trip to Mexico when he was stopped by Immigration Authorities. No charges were made against him and he was released in a short period of time.

LAUTNER made available a typewritten resume of the lectures and topics covered by himself at various periods from 1934 up to 1949. Copies of this memorandum list have been made and are attached hereto.

Reference is made to the Baltimore teletype of December 7, 1951, and Baltimore letter of December 14, 1951, which sets forth certain background of John Lautner which had not previously been brought to the attention of the FBI.

The New York Office should make certain that AUSA Cohn, SDNY, and the other members of the United States Attorney's staff prosecuting the Smith Act case in New York City are aware of the full background of John Lautner, including his admission that he had perjured himself on at least one occasion.

If it becomes apparent that John Lautner might be utilized as a witness in the Los Angeles or other cases, prior to his appearance in the New York or Baltimore cases, the pertinent background information concerning Lautner should be made available to those field offices for forwarding to the appropriate USA. Although the Departmental attorneys participated in the interview of Lautner in Baltimore when this information was developed, it is possible that each of the United States Attorneys' offices may not be fully apprised.
